Primal Vision Christian Presence Amid Af:

Primal Religion and the Bible Gillian M. Bediako, 1997-08-01 This important study of the published and unpublished writings of Scotland's most brilliant and controversial nineteenth century theologian focuses on his concern to situate biblical religion within the context of the primal religions of Israel's neighbours. The book explores the implications of the relationship between the Christian faith and primal religion. Robertson Smith has still a contribution to make to contemporary discussion of the phenomenology of the Christian faith and Christian responses to religious pluralism. Evangelizing Neopagan North America Alfred C. Krass, 2001-03-01 Theology and Identity Kwame Bediako, 2011-06-01 Kwame Bediako examines the question of Christian identity in the context of the Greco-Roman culture of the early Roman Empire. He then addresses the modern African predicament of quests for identity and integration. Theology and Identity was one of the finalists for the 1992 HarperCollins Religious Book Award. Coping with Evil in Religion and Culture Lourens Minnema, 2008 Kwabena ASAMOAH GYADU Conquering Satan Demons Principalities and Powers Ghanaian Traditional and Christian Perspectives on Religion Evil The Origins of the New Churches Movement in Southern Ethiopia, 1927-1944 Brian L. Fargher, 2023-09-20 This study describes the beginnings of a movement which has created another face for Ethiopian Christianity. The expatriate missionary evangelists who in 1927 were encouraged by Emperor Haile Selassie to work in southern Ethiopia intentionally by-passed the Orthodox model and made a fresh start. Three of the many facets of the movement comprise the body of the book. There is the religious backdrop of Orthodox Christianity and the expatriates' fundamentalist traditions; then the praxis and polity of their work; finally the post-Occupation outcome which confirmed their choices. Since its beginning in 1932 the New Churches Movement has impacted every part of Ethiopian society: religious, political and socio-economic. It demonstrates that a fresh start can be complementary rather than competitive. The movement's success encourages missionary evangelists to continue making new beginnings. The Human Condition Joe M. Kapolyo, 2013-05-14 Human beings are complex. For all our contemporary knowledge and ability, however wonderful and widely available, people around the world face a crisis of human identity that calls into question the meaning of existence and the basis of moral behaviour. Responding to these challenges, Joe Kapolyo recognizes both the authority of the Bible which teaches that people are created in the image of God but also corrupted by rebellion and sin, and the relevance of distinctly African perspectives on what it means to be human. Although he reads these perspectives critically, they lead him to reaffirm the biblical vision of redeemed human life in community in Christ. This vision offers a solution to the crisis of identity experienced by people who have forgotten who they are and whose they are. War and Faith in Sudan Gabriel Meyer, 2005 This account of the tragic civil war in Sudan is more than a skillful journalist's firsthand report. Meyer also offers a deeper understanding of the cultural, racial and religious fault lines that divide the world at the start of the 21st century. Toward an Anabaptist-Pentecostal Vision Joseph C. L. Sawatzky, 2023-03-28 What does Pentecostalism, the fastest growing Christian expression worldwide, have to do with

Anabaptism whose Mennonite adherents have sometimes been called the quiet in the land In this groundbreaking study Joseph C L Sawatzky explores a mission history of North American Mennonites working with African Initiated and Pentecostal type churches in southern Africa illuminating points of divergence and convergence between Anabaptist and Pentecostal streams Placing testimonies of African and North American participants in this history within a broader biblical and theological framework this study proposes bases for an emerging Anabaptist Pentecostal vision with implications for the church its leadership and its witness in the world This lively interdisciplinary study will interest students of mission interculturality and the Christian faith itself Jesus and the Gospel in Africa Kwame Bediako,2004 Jesus and the Gospel in Africa collects writings by Kwame Bediako and is the best source for his insights into the Christ of present day African history and the Jesus of African faith Bediako shows how intimately bound together are such elements as the message of Jesus and the struggle to give birth to African democracy Book Jacket Who wants to be a Millionaire? Emanuel Anim,2020-01-01 Prosperity Teaching is fast becoming a standard part of contemporary African Christianity This teaching is best understood in the Charismatic and Pentecostal churches in Africa The varied expressions and nuances call for a critical analysis of the phenomenon Prosperity Teaching affirms wealth divine healing good health and long life as manifestations of God s blessing Conspicuous consumption is often seen as a sign of a successful life and suffering has no place in the divine order of God s sovereignty This book Who Wants to be a Millionaire seeks to bring some understanding to this teaching and shows the extent of its impact in the wider society Making Connections Marilyn Naidoo,2021-11-19 Because of the disconnect within the curriculum and the lack of contextual relevance African theological education is still searching for appropriate approaches to ministerial training Integrative theological education refers to systematic attempts to connect major learning experiences appropriate to the education and formation of ministers It is seen as a solution to connect and transform ministry training The main premise of this book is that the key to enhancing theological education is the intentional integration of knowing with being and doing of theory with practice and of theology with life and ministry In this way all aspects of student learning are brought together holistically highlighting an educational strategy that is concerned with connections in human experience thereby supporting student learning Making Connections offers the opportunity to consider integration as an appropriate pedagogical approach to create the correct balance in making education more meaningful and fulfilling for the African revealing humanising education grounded in African philosophy and worldview

Parables and Fables V. Y. Mudimbe,1991 This remarkable book confronts the philosophical problems of otherness and identity through readings of the parables and fables of a colonized people the Luba of Zaire V Y Mudimbe poses two overarching questions how can one think about and comment upon alterity without essentializing its features And is it possible to speak and write about an African tradition or its contemporary practice without taking into account the authority of the colonial library that has invented African identities Mudimbe brings unusual insight to such a discussions Here I am on the margin of margins Black African Catholic yet agnostic intellectually Marxist disposed toward psychoanalysis yet a specialist in Indo European philology and philosophy He uses his own education by Catholic missionairies in Zaire as a framework for exploring interactions between African and Western systems of thought Mudimbe examines the relationship between God and human beings in the philosophy and mythology of the Luba and sets this against the background of Western particularly Catholic theology He introduces the problematic of religious revelation as political performance and situates it within the African colonial context He analyzes the development of Francophone African philosophy showing its integral connection to African theology as envisioned by Catholic missionaries in Central Africa Mudimbe then reviews some of the parables of mythical founding events that have led to the concept of an African philosophy and theology Continuing this exploration Mudimbe elaborates and comments on the well documented case of the Luba clarifying how Luba social and cultural reality relates to Luba mythology as set down by ethnographers The final chapter is an exchange between Mudimbe and anthropologist Peter Rigby evaluating the possibilities of a Marxist anthropology
