Leadership in a Post-Conflict Context Shayla Maria Babo Ribeiro, Simon Clarke, Tom O'Donoghue, 2020-09-04 This book focuses on primary school leadership in the post conflict and developing country of Timor Leste In doing so it reports on research that has charted a narrative arc comprising the historical background to primary school leadership as well as the current concerns perceived by primary school leaders and the strategies they adopt when dealing with the challenges encountered in their day to day work This exposition reveals the significant progress that has been made in establishing a universal mandatory and free Basic Education system during the country's emergence as a post conflict society It also conveys the lived experience of practitioners and describes vividly the realities of their work in leading their schools and communities The book will be useful for researchers in the field of educational leadership for school leaders for education policy makers and for those responsible for preparing developing and supporting primary school leaders in Timor Leste as well as in other post conflict and developing countries

School Leadership in Diverse Contexts Simon Clarke, Tom O'Donoghue, 2015-11-06 School Leadership in Diverse Contexts demonstrates the centrality of context to understanding school leadership It offers varied portrayals of leadership in a diverse range of distinct settings Each chapter highlights the prominence of context in understanding the realities of school leadership focusing on issues and influences that school leaders face strategies school leaders adopt to deal with the complexities of their work and conceptualisations of school leadership relevant to the context An impressive array of international experts examine this neglected area of research by considering school leadership in nine heterogeneous contexts providing rich and varied portrayals of school leadership and suggesting ways in which the leadership may be enhanced School Leadership in Diverse Contexts is an ideal book for undergraduate and postgraduate students particularly those studying units in educational leadership comparative education and educational policy Similarly undergraduate and postgraduate students engaged with development studies history sociology law human geography will be attracted to this text

Primary School Leadership in Cambodia Thida Kheang, Tom O'Donoghue, Simon Clarke, 2018-03-16 This book investigates the relationship between context and leadership in post conflict Cambodia Building on the understanding that approaches to leadership are tightly woven within the contexts that leaders operate the authors examine the case of primary school leadership in Cambodia A low income and post conflict society rocked by civil war and genocide between the 1960s and the 1990s the country is perhaps unsurprisingly faced with numerous challenges as it engages in the process of national rehabilitation and reconstruction particularly in relation to the education system The authors provide a comprehensive historical background to primary school leadership not only in Cambodia but in post conflict environments more broadly informing school leadership preparation development and support and facilitating understanding of the context in which school leaders work This book will be of value to students and scholars of primary school education and education in post conflict countries as well as to practitioners and policy makers

Primary School Leadership in Post-Conflict Rwanda Gilbert Karareba, Simon Clarke, Thomas O'Donoghue, 2017-08-08 This book explores the current status of primary schools in Rwanda and the history behind their development It argues that current primary school leaders in the area encounter a wide range of problems relating to conflict prevention teachers and school leaders professionalism financial and resourcing constraints student attrition and parental disengagement many of which can be attributed to the legacies of war and the genocide in 1994 The book also presents a range of strategies that are pursued by school leaders while dealing with these concerns as the Rwandan government invests in reconstructing education following the country's turmoil Through examining the issues of the past and the present the book provides valuable insights for researchers of educational leadership school leaders education policy makers and those in charge of preparing developing and implementing professional development programmes for school leaders and teachers in Rwanda as well as in other post war and developing countries

Perspectives on School Leadership in Asia Pacific Contexts Salleh Hairon, Jonathan Wee Pin Goh, 2019-08-06 This book casts a refreshingly new light on current literature on school leadership which has predominantly been viewed through Western lenses Accordingly key concepts and theories on leadership and school leadership have primarily been generated from thinking and research in the Western sphere This is problematic considering the fact that the leadership concept or construct and its practices are significantly influenced and shaped by contexts and even situations However there are various contextual conditions and forces that can separately or collectively affect how school leadership is understood and practiced including social cultural historical geographical economic and political conditions In response the book seeks to provide readers a better awareness of how the leadership construct or phenomenon is shaped by the varying contexts constantly affecting school leadership while specifically focusing on the Asia Pacific region In turn it highlights various Asia Pacific contexts that shape school leadership so as to speak back to existing theories on school leadership

Leadership in Educational Contexts in Finland Raisa Ahtiainen, Eija Hanhimäki, Jaana Leinonen, Mika Risku, Ann-Sofie Smeds-Nylund, 2023-10-06 This open access book provides a comprehensive overview and in depth coverage of contemporary aspects of leadership in the field of education in Finland It brings together Finnish scholars to critically explore and discuss leadership in education in the context of the Finnish education system and in relation to international discourses around the topic It discusses the phenomenon of leadership in educational contexts through several novel empirical and theoretical research designs It includes themes such as distributed leadership and collaborative governance changing aspects in the leadership profession and contradictions in everyday organizational practices and realities The work also combines conceptual discussions in educational and pedagogical leadership to analyze and to clarify the theoretical and conceptual multidimensionality and ambiguities Why Context Matters in Educational Leadership Colin Evers, Gabriele Lakomski, 2022-02-20 Why Context Matters in Educational Leadership A New Theoretical Understanding is unique in the field of educational leadership studies This book offers a systematic account of educational leadership from the perspective that context matters It argues that studies of leadership in education can only progress if the importance of context is understood and presents context as a set of constraints under which leadership is exercised A theoretical book that offers at last three major challenges to dominant positions in the field in a systematic way it provides a new coherent and more realistic way to think about leadership in context The chapters offer concrete steps for complex problem solving in schools and will help schools tailor solutions to local constraints and circumstances Written by leading scholars Colin W Evers and Gabriele Lakomski this book will be essential reading for students and researchers working in the fields of education educational administration and leadership TALIS School Leadership for Learning Insights from TALIS 2013 OECD, 2016-09-20 The OECD Teaching and Learning International Survey TALIS is the largest international survey of teachers and school leaders Using the TALIS database this report looks at different approaches to school leadership and the impact of school leadership on professional learning communities and Contextual Intelligence in School Leadership Ramodikoe Nylon Marishane, 2020-04-28 In Contextual Intelligence in School Leadership the author presents a new leadership construct suitable for the 21st century context of school improvement He presents school leadership from contextual intelligence perspective as a function of various elements which interact within the leadership they shape and the context in which such leadership is exercised to exert influence on the core areas of practice including student learning teacher development and school community engagement The construct represents a departure from the contemporary leadership theories which place emphasis on separate elements of leadership and inadvertently create a problem of disintegration that does not bode well for sustainable school improvement Leaders and Leadership in Serbian Primary Schools Jelena Raković, Tom O'Donoghue, Simon Clarke, 2018-12-12 This book explores the perspectives of primary school leaders in Serbia as they attempt to navigate its changing political social and economic situation As a post socialist and post conflict country Serbia has moved from a state ruled and planned economy to market oriented consumerism and competitiveness In the midst of a rapidly changing and evolving country school leaders have found themselves on the front lines of a system where infrastructure and support have not been implemented consistently The clash between the complexities of Serbia's history and attempts to align education policies to those of the European Union has created unique challenges for primary school leaders they are expected to be both objects and agents of change in a context where their own political position and relationships with students parents and the teaching profession at large have been irrevocably altered By illuminating the perspectives of the leaders themselves this book emphasises the importance of these actors on the front line of Serbian education its findings can equally be applied to other post Communist and post conflict contexts Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development
