Intellectual Property and the Judiciary Christophe Geiger, Craig Allen Nard, Xavier Seuba, 2018-10-26 This book fills a gap in IP law There are many publications on substantive and procedural law in IP litigation But it was impossible to find a book that addresses the role of the judiciary in IP like this one does It provides unique insights into the matter from a variety of angles It brings together editors and authors from the bench the bar and academia coming from all over Europe the US and Japan This book is a must have for everyone who has an interest in international IP litigation Klaus Grabinski Justice Federal Court of Justice Bundesgerichtshof Germany This volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of the contours of intellectual property protection through a critical examination of the global trend to adjudicate IP disputes in specialized courts The editors have assembled an extraordinary group of scholars practitioners and judges to compare their experiences with various adjudicatory structures

Rochelle Dreyfuss New York University School of Law US Intellectual Property and the Judiciary examines the role of judges in the development

interpretation and application of intellectual property IP law and norms In this regard the authors engage in a comparative analysis of various national European and international court systems while also exploring the competing and complementary roles of legislators and executive actors Each chapter seeks to capture the comparative institutional advantages of government bodies within existing legal frameworks as well as offering a thorough examination of both the common law and civil law traditions in the context of judicial treatment of IP The result is a series of proposals relating to the architecture of judiciaries and the functional role of judges with the goal of optimally positioning jurists to address complex issues and advance IP doctrine and policy Featuring high level authors from both academia and practice the book will be of great interest to academic researchers and practicing lawyers who have a focus on IP It will be of particular value to those who are engaged in the rapidly changing enforcement environment of intellectual property rights Contributors include V Cassiers M Ekvad S Frankel C Geiger D Gervais S Granata J Griffiths E Izyumenko T Kandeva S Lugienbuehl B Lynn S Martin C Mulder M O M ller C Nard K O Malley C S Petersen A Plomer J Schovsbo X Seuba A Strowel T Takenaka A von M hlendahl G W rtenberger P Yu

Development Reports ,1969-10 Blaming Mothers Linda C. Fentiman,2019-05-01 A gripping explanation of the biases that lead to the blaming of pregnant women and mothers Are mothers truly a danger to their children s health In 2004 a mentally disabled young woman in Utah was charged by prosecutors with murder after she declined to have a Caesarian section and subsequently delivered a stillborn child In 2010 a pregnant woman who attempted suicide when the baby s father abandoned her was charged with murder and attempted feticide after the daughter she delivered prematurely died These are just two of the many cases that portray mothers as the major source of health risk for their children The American legal system is deeply shaped by unconscious risk perception that distorts core legal principles to punish mothers who fail to protect their children In Blaming Mothers Professor Fentiman explores how mothers became legal targets She explains the psychological processes we use to confront tragic events and the unconscious race class and gender biases that affect our perceptions and influence the decisions of prosecutors judges and jurors Fentiman examines legal actions taken against pregnant women in the name of fetal protection including court ordered C sections and maintaining brain dead pregnant women on life support to gestate a fetus as well as charges brought against mothers who fail to protect their children from an abusive male partner She considers the claims of physicians and policymakers that refusing to breastfeed is risky to children s health And she explores the legal treatment of lead poisoned children in which landlords and lead paint manufacturers are not held responsible for exposing children to high levels of lead while mothers are blamed for their children s injuries Blaming Mothers is a powerful call to reexamine who and what we consider risky to children s health Fentiman offers an important framework for evaluating childhood risk that rather than scapegoating mothers provides concrete solutions that promote the health of all of America s children Read a piece by Linda Fentiman on shaming and blaming mothers under the law on The Gender Policy Report Parliamentary Debates New Zealand.
