Rediscovering Interlanguage Larry Selinker, 1992 An account of the development of research and thinking in the field of learner language Draws on wide ranging research into contrastive analysis bilingualism theoretical linguistics and experimental psychology Rediscovering Interlanguage Larry Selinker, 1994 Introducing Second Language

Acquisition Muriel Saville-Troike, 2005-11-17 Written for students encountering the topic for the first time this is a clear and practical introduction to second language acquisition SLA It explains in non technical language how a second language is acquired what the second language learner needs to know and why some learners are more successful than others The textbook introduces in a step by step fashion a range of fundamental concepts such as SLA in adults and children in formal and informal learning contexts and in diverse socio cultural settings and takes an interdisciplinary approach encouraging students to consider SLA from linguistic psychological and social perspectives Each chapter contains a list of key terms a summary and a range of graded exercises suitable for self testing or class discussion Providing a solid foundation in SLA this book is set to become the leading introduction to the field for students of linguistics psychology and education and trainee language teachers The Solution to the 'Son of Man' Problem Maurice Casey, 2009-09-01 The opening chapter surveys the history of scholarship regarding the problematic use of the phrase son of man in the New Testament It also explains why this problem could not be solved until recently Casey then presents the relevant Aramaic evidence He offers a careful discussion of the use of the Aramaic term son of man in the light of over 30 examples of the use of this term by speakers who are referring to themselves Chapters 4-9 discuss authentic examples of this idiom in the teaching of Jesus with Aramaic reconstructions of each saying All but one of these sayings is found in Mark or Q There is then a full discussion of secondary sayings in the Synoptic Gospels The first ones dependent on Daniel 7:13 belong to the earliest Gospel which also contains the results of translating genuine sayings of Jesus from Aramaic into Greek There is a discussion of the transition process between authentic Aramaic sayings of Jesus and Greek son of man sayings in the synoptic Gospels This argument builds on work in the field of translation studies and the work of ancient translators especially of the Septuagint Casey argues that Gospel translators deliberately translated both literally and creatively to produce a new Christological title It is this tradition that is evident in the Fourth Gospel its son of man sayings fit perfectly into Johannine theology The final chapter draws together a complete solution to this difficult problem A Dynamic Model of Multilingualism Philip Herdina, Ulrike Jessner, 2002 The model presented in this volume draws together various strands of research second language acquisition theory bilingualism research dynamic systems theory to develop a novel approach to this challenging subject Its main focus lies on the psycholinguistic dynamics of multilingualism the processes of change in time affecting two or more language systems Routledge Dictionary of Language and Linguistics Hadumod Bussmann, 2006-02-20 The Routledge Dictionary of Language and Linguistics is a unique reference work for students and teachers of linguistics The highly regarded second edition of the Lexikon der Sprachwissenschaft by Hadumod Bussmann has been specifically adapted by a team of over thirty specialist linguists to form the most comprehensive and up to date work of its kind in the English language. In over 2 500 entries the Dictionary provides an exhaustive survey of the key terminology and languages of more than 30 subdisciplines of linguistics. With its term based approach and emphasis on clear analysis it complements perfectly Routledge's established range of reference material in the field of linguistics.

Second Language Acquisition Susan M. Gass, 2013-08-21 Now in a fourth edition this bestselling introductory textbook remains the cornerstone volume for the study of second language acquisition (SLA). Its chapters have been fully updated and reorganized where appropriate to provide a comprehensive yet accessible overview of the field and its related disciplines. To reflect current developments new sections on using learner corpora, semantics and morphosyntax within formal approaches to SLA, sociocultural approaches, gesture priming research and chaos theory have been added. Students will also find expanded discussions of heritage language learning, bilingualism, pragmatics and much more. The redesigned fourth edition of Second Language Acquisition retains the features that students found useful in the current edition but also provides new pedagogical tools that encourage students to reflect upon the experiences of second language learners. As with previous editions, discussion questions and problems at the end of each chapter help students apply their knowledge and a glossary defines and reinforces must know terminology. This clearly written, comprehensive and current textbook by expert Sue Gass is the ideal textbook for the introductory SLA course in second language studies, applied linguistics, linguistics, TESOL and language education programs.
