Reenvisioning Theological Education Exploring A Missional Alternative To Current Models:

Reenvisioning Theological Education Robert Banks, 1999 A top leadership theorist offers a compelling proposal for renovating the way religious education is practiced today Christian colleges and seminaries have not been immune from the cultural influences shaping contemporary education Challenging the conventional wisdom advanced by the educational debate during the last fifteen years Robert Banks builds an innovative new model of theological education based on how ministry formation took place in biblical times Banks takes full account of key issues raised by our current educational context and shows how a missional model of education is more holistic inclusive and practical than recent versions

Transforming Theological Education, 2nd Edition Perry Shaw, 2022-01-31 For several decades concern has been expressed about the need for greater integration and contextual significance in the curricular design of theological education In addition there has been a growing awareness of the role theological schools should play in strengthening the missional vision and practice of local churches Drawing on Dr Perry Shaw s experience as faculty member educational engineer and acting academic dean for Arab Baptist Theological Seminary Transforming Theological Education provides theoretical foundations and practical principles for purposeful curriculum design as well as tools for facilitating integrated and contextually significant learning in the classroom This updated second edition has been reorganized for thematic clarity and expanded to provide a stronger foundation for thinking theologically rather than just educationally about theological education It also contains a wider range of curricular examples from innovative theological programs around the world along with practical advice for implementing change in change resistant environments This handbook continues to be a one of a kind resource for theological educators and all those involved in Christian leadership training

Empowering Hispanic Leaders Victor H. Cuartas, 2009 The estimated Hispanic population of the United States was 45.5 million in 2007 making people of Hispanic origin the nation s largest ethnic or race minority Hispanics constitute 15 percent of the nation s total population The Latino population in the United States will triple in size and according to the Census projections Hispanics will make up 29 percent of the United States population by 2050 This book offers suggestions for training Hispanic leaders who will be involved in ministry in various regions of the United States The findings of this research project produced information understanding and direction that can contribute to the imperative efforts to train emerging leaders for Hispanic groups everywhere The principles revealed in this study of Hispanic leadership training will prove effective in empowering leaders of other groups in the United States and other countries

Theological Education Andrew M. Bain, Ian Hussey, 2018-01-08 This volume draws upon historical and theological sources and empirical research to provide a unique and diverse perspective on theological education in the twenty first century The volume develops and promulgates the best thinking about theological education by drawing upon the breadth of expertise represented by the faculty of colleges within the Australian College of Theology This volume not only produces crucial insights for the future of theological education around the world but gives the Australian theological sector a voice to make its own unique contribution to the global dialogue about theological education

Reimagining Christian Education Johannes M. Luetz, Tony Dowden, Beverley Norsworthy, 2018-07-04 This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education comprising works by leading scholars professionals and practitioners from around the globe It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field tested and practice approved It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management theology of business Christian models of teaching in different contexts job preparedness developing different interpretive or meaning making frameworks for working with social justice people with disability non profit community organisations and in developing country contexts It offers graduate students teachers school administrators organisational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life long learning

The Missional Church and Leadership Formation Craig Van Gelder, 2009-10-23 In this volume the third book in the Missional Church series eminent missional church expert Craig Van Gelder continues to track and contribute to the expanding missional church conversation inviting today's brightest minds in the field to speak to key questions concerning church leadership

Canonical Theism William Abraham, Jason E. Vickers, Natalie B. Van Kirk, 2008-02-18 The bold thesis of Canonical Theism is that the good and life giving Holy Spirit has equipped the church not only with a canon of scripture but also with an abundant canonical heritage of materials persons and practices However much of the latter has been ignored or cast aside The authors call for the retrieval and redeployment of the full range of this rich legacy Voices from across the spectrum here chart that mine of opportunity and invite the entire church to explore the benefits of their discoveries Ambitious in its scope and agenda Canonical Theism offers insights that will enable the readers to discover anew the faith that has nourished converts created saints and upheld martyrs across the years Contributors William J Abraham Frederick D Aquino Paul L Gavrilyuk Charles Gutenson Douglas M Koskela Mark E Powell Frederick W Schmidt Horace Six Means Natalie B Van Kirk Jason E Vickers David F Watson

Diversified Theological Education Ross Kinsler, 2008

Old Testament in Theology and Teaching Teresa Chai, 2018-03-22 This book is a series of essays in Old Testament theology and pedagogy Each article is written by scholars with academic competence and long experience in their respective disciplines Written with a high view of the inerrancy of Scripture in mind each author seeks to bring biblical truth to light In most cases the authors write from within the Pentecostal Charismatic tradition and seek to bless the wider Body of Christ

Always Being Reformed David Hadley Jensen, 2016-03-31 One of the most persistent slogans of Reformed theology is that it is reformed and always being reformed But what does this slogan mean This volume gathers thirteen essays written by a younger generation of Reformed theologians who teach and write on five different continents who together offer this work in Christian systematic theology Unlike many other works of Reformed theology however this book is framed by pressing contextual issues and questions instead of traditional loci Each chapter engages classical doctrine but does so through the lens of contemporary lived experience in particular contexts The result is not a theology where doctrines are applied to contexts but an approach where doctrine and context mutually shape one another The contributors take seriously the notion that theology is always being reformed and is always partial ever on the way hence it requires conversation partners beyond the Reformed family of faith The result is a study in Reformed theology that is thoroughly ecumenical

Leadership in Theological Education, Volume 1 Fritz Deininger, Orbelina Eguizabal, 2017-04-14 The ICETE Programme for Academic Leadership IPAL was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world IPAL provides a three year cycle of four day seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence This publication is the first of three volumes intended to accompany and support the IPAL seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional development Each chapter shares and illustrates the contributors expertise in and understanding of education leadership and administration in the field of evangelical academic institutions With an intentional awareness of a wide range of non Western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for senior administrators around the world

Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience

Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations change creates discomfort Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise experience and ability That expectation a product of modern approaches to leadership views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation

Theology and the Mirror of Scripture Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Daniel J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship The Bible and the Business of Life Simon Carey Holt, Gordon R. Preece, 2004 The Bible and the Business of Life is an anthology of essays by a variety of authors celebrating the 65th birthday of Robert Banks Robert Banks was an Baptist who worked and taught in the USA in Pasadena and in Melbourne Mission to the World Tormod Engelsviken, Ernst Harbakk, Rolv Olsen, Thor Strandenaes, 2009-11-01 Towards a Malawian Theology of Laity Volker Glissmann, 2021-01-29 A key theological emphasis of the church is the priesthood of all believers This emphasis implies that lay empowerment and lay participation are central to what the church does Yet lay participation is a bit of an unfulfilled promise in many cases This book brings together church leaders theological educators as well as practitioners who are actively involved in lay ministry here in Malawi so that a stronger theology of laity for the Malawian church can emerge Reading the Bible Missionally Michael Goheen, 2016-11-27 Academy of Parish Clergy's Top Ten Books for Parish Ministry Insights from a noteworthy convergence of top scholars in biblical studies and missiology Over the past half century it has become clear that mission is a central theme in the Bible's narrative and moreover is central to the very identity of the church This book significantly widens and deepens the emerging conversation on missional hermeneutics Essays from top biblical and missiological scholars discuss reading the Scriptures missionally using mission as a key interpretive lens Five introductory chapters probe various elements of a missional hermeneutic followed by sections on the Old and New Testaments that include chapters on two books from each to illustrate what a missional reading of them looks like Essays in two concluding sections draw out the implications of a missional reading of Scripture for preaching and for theological education CONTRIBUTORS Craig G Bartholomew Richard Bauckham Carl J Bosma Tim J Davy Dean Flemming John R Franke Mark Glanville Michael W Goheen Joel B Green Darrell L Guder George R Hunsberger Timothy M Sheridan Christopher J H Wright N T Wright Mission in the Way of Paul Christopher R. Little, 2005 What relevance does the Apostle Paul have for the mission of the church in the twenty first century By investigating his socioeconomic background examining his doxological orientation in mission delineating how and why he shared resources in the first century and then relating all this to what has been called the contemporary International Partnership Movement this book demonstrates that when the church engages in cross cultural mission and ignores Pauline orthopraxy it places unnecessary obstacles in the path of the missio Dei Therefore Mission in the Way of Paul Biblical Mission for the Church in the Twenty First Century is pertinent for any course devoted to learning from and implementing biblical models of mission today New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement Tom Steffen, Cameron D. Armstrong, 2022-02-18 Orality formed us Orality forms us Orality will forever form us Orality is a central theme of our lives In this fast paced world few Christian workers take the time to look back to learn and build on the lessons of the past Wise Christian workers however do not forge ahead into new horizons without first investigating past horizons They understand in this complex world there are too many strong shoulders of the past to be overlooked The dozen practiced researchers contributing to New and Old Horizons in the Orality Movement offer such inquirers wisdom from the past that can boldly and boundlessly improve the future of the modern day orality movement
