Analyzing Faculty Workload Jon F. Wergin, 1994 The question being asked with increasing regularity is Just what do faculty members do Studies of faculty workload have been commissioned in state after state Taken together the studies indicate that college faculty members are working harder than ever but are probably teaching less and are almost certainly having less contact with students particularly undergraduates This volume of New Directions for Institutional Research explores how the public discourse about faculty work might be improved and suggests how colleges and universities might document that work in a fashion that not only more faithfully describes what faculty do but also allows for reports that are more comprehensive and useful This is the 83rd issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Institutional Research For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page Social Science Reference Sources Tze-chung Li,1980

Providing Useful Information for Deans and Department Chairs Mary K. Kinnick,1994 The major purpose of this volume of New Directions for Institutional Research is to increase the attention institutional researchers give to the information needs of deans and department chairs Higher education in the United States is in the midst of a major transformation This process will reshape and reposition in fundamental ways higher education s role in the society Deans and department chairs are pivotal change agents in this process To survive indeed to thrive postsecondary education institutions must become more learner centered and must redefine the nature and balance of valued faculty work Institutional researchers can provide useful information to deans and chairs that will help them to understand changing student needs to facilitate and assess student learning to assess and understand faculty culture and to redefine assign and assess faculty work This is the 84th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Institutional Research For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page Title Index, ERIC ED Accessions File ERIC Processing and Reference Facility,1966 ERIC Educational Documents Index, 1966-1969: Minor descriptors.
