Reflections On Caring For An Aging Parent:

Reflections on Caring for an Aging Parent Audrey Brown Lightbody, 1999 In this deeply personal book Lightbody shares an experience that many people will come to face in their lives changing roles with their own parents Poignant and insightful letters and journal pages detail her changing relationship to her elderly mother who suffers from increasingly deteriorating physical and mental health and offer a depth of wisdom and insight that only experience can bring Visits Lee Ann Chearney, 1998 Based on the author's experiences as a caregiver for her mother and grandmother Visits offers entries of comfort counsel and practical advice for children of aging parents as they mark this difficult transition with their loved ones Women and Climate Change Nicole Detraz, 2023-02-14 How ideas of gender and climate change intersect with our path to a livable future When you think climate change who comes to mind Who's doing the science the reporting the protesting the suffering In Women and Climate Change Nicole Detraz asks where women in the Global North figure in the picture what that means and why it matters Her answers fill critical gaps in what we know about the politics of climate change and gender Representations of climate change like perceptions of gender can make a profound difference in understanding expectations and actions around social cultural and political issues Interviewing women living in the Global North who work in the climate change sphere Detraz examines the crucial links between notions of climate change and gender in particular how women are portrayed in climate change debates Where is their presence or absence recognized What tasks are they expected to perform What factors influence their roles The answers provide a nuanced account of the characteristics conditions and positions associated with women's activities in and experiences of climate change a multifaceted portrayal of women that also demonstrates the generalization and essentializing that can hinder goals of sustainability and gender justice Because gender is a social construction Detraz reminds us change is possible Her book offers the suggestion and the hope that identifying connections between ideas of gender and climate change might also alter our vision of a livable future Working Couples Caring for Children and Aging Parents Margaret B. Neal, Leslie B. Hammer, 2017-09-25 As the baby boomer generation approaches midlife many dual earner couples are struggling with issues of simultaneously caring for children while tending to aging parents This timely book uncovers the circumstances faced by these workers known as the sandwiched generation and identifies what they need in order to fulfill their work and family responsibilities Authors Margaret B Neal and Leslie B Hammer suggest the workplace as an arena for change proposing that it adapt to the situations of today's workers by providing flexibility and understanding the needs and priorities of families Based on a four year national study funded by the Alfred P Sloan Foundation Working Couples Caring for Children and Aging Parents examines employer and governmental initiatives affecting work and family life in the United States supports provided to working caregivers in countries other than the United States the effects of being sandwiched on work family fit well being and work and changes in work and family roles and outcomes over time This book will interest a broad audience including
