Reflective Teaching Kenneth M. Zeichner, Daniel Patrick Liston, 1996. This volume outlines the assumptions and beliefs that distinguish the concept of the reflective teacher from the view of the teacher as passive and a mere technician; a view that teacher education programs and schools have historically promoted. This is the first volume in the Reflective Teaching and the Social Conditions of Schooling series. The major goal of both this book and of all of the volumes to follow in this series is to help teachers explore and define their own positions with regard to the topics and issues at hand within the context of the aims of education in a democratic society.

The Art of Reflective Teaching Carol R. Rodgers, 2020. The Art of Reflective Teaching examines what it means to be present in one's teaching. The book then outlines the structure of reflection, its intentional practice and its importance to presence. Finally, it provides a detailed outline for teaching presence to new and preservice teachers. Rodgers's curriculum integrates mindfulness practice with reflection, using presence as a bridge between the two. Drawing on her own experiences and those of her students, the author demonstrates how reflective teaching is grounded in a living and evolving philosophy of practice. Book Features Shows educators how to mentally and emotionally connect themselves to their students.
