Film Criticism, the Cold War, and the Blacklist Jeff Smith, 2014-03-26 Film Criticism the Cold War and the Blacklist examines the long term reception of several key American films released during the postwar period focusing on the two main critical lenses used in the interpretation of these films propaganda and allegory Produced in response to the hearings held by the House Committee on Un American Activities HUAC that resulted in the Hollywood blacklist these films ideological message and rhetorical effectiveness was often muddled by the inherent difficulties in dramatizing villains defined by their thoughts and belief systems rather than their actions Whereas anti Communist propaganda films offered explicit political exhortation allegory was the preferred vehicle for veiled or hidden political comment in many police procedurals historical films Westerns and science fiction films Jeff Smith examines the way that particular heuristics such as the mental availability of exemplars and the effects of framing have encouraged critics to match filmic elements to contemporaneous historical events persons and policies In charting the development of these particular readings Film Criticism the Cold War and the Blacklist features case studies of many canonical Cold War titles including The Red Menace On the Waterfront The Robe High Noon and Invasion of the Body Snatchers

Film Criticism and Digital Cultures Andrew McWhirter, 2016-08-26 The critic is dead Everyone s a critic These statements reflect some of the perceptions of film criticism in a time when an opinion can be published in seconds yet reach an audience of millions This book examines the reality of contemporary film criticism by talking to leading practitioners in the UK and North America such as Nick James Mark Cousins Jonathan Rosenbaum and Richard Porton and by covering a broad spectrum of influential publications including Sight Sound The Guardian Cineaste indieWIRE and Variety Forming a major new contribution to an emerging field of study these enquiries survey the impact of larger cultural economic and technological processes facing society media and journalism Historical perspectives on criticism from ancient times and current debates in journalism and digital media are used to unravel questions such as what is the relationship between crisis and criticism In what way does the web change the functions and habits of practitioners What influences do film industries have on the critical act And how engaged are practitioners with converged and creative film criticism such as the video essay In the face of transformative digital idealism empirical findings here redress the balance and argue the case for evolution rather than revolution taking place within film criticism Reading the Comments Joseph Michael Reagle, 2015-04-24 What we can learn about human nature from the informative manipulative confusing and amusing messages at the bottom of the web Online comment can be informative or misleading entertaining or maddening Haters and manipulators often seem to monopolize the conversation Some comments are off topic or even topic less In this book Joseph Reagle urges us to read the comments Conversations on the bottom half of the Internet he argues can tell us much about human nature and social behavior Reagle visits communities of Amazon reviewers fan fiction authors online learners scammers freethinkers and mean kids He shows how comment can inform us through reviews improve us through feedback manipulate us through fakery alienate us through hate shape us through social comparison and perplex us He finds pre Internet historical antecedents of online comment in Michelin stars professional criticism and the wisdom of crowds He discusses the techniques of online fakery distinguishing makers fakers and takers describes the emotional work of receiving and giving feedback and examines the culture of trolls and haters bullying and misogyny He considers the way comment a nonstop stream of social quantification and ranking affects our self esteem and well being And he examines how comment is puzzling short and asynchronous these messages can be slap dash confusing amusing revealing and weird shedding context in their passage through the Internet prompting readers to comment in turn WTF Agee on Film: Reviews and comments James Agee, 1958

Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities A Grammar of Murder Karla Oeler, 2009-12-15 The dark shadows and offscreen space that force us to imagine violence we cannot see The real slaughter of animals spliced with the fictional killing of men The missing countershot from the murder victim s point of view Such images or absent images Karla Oeler contends distill how the murder scene challenges and changes film Reexamining works by such filmmakers as Renoir Hitchcock Kubrick Jarmusch and Eisenstein Oeler traces the murder scene s intricate connections to the great breakthroughs in the theory and practice of montage and the formulation of the rules and syntax of Hollywood genre She argues that murder plays such a central role in film because it mirrors on multiple levels the act of cinematic representation Death and murder at once eradicate life and call attention to its former existence just as cinema conveys both the reality and the absence of the objects it depicts But murder shares with cinema not only this interplay between presence and absence movement and stillness unlike death killing entails the deliberate reduction of a singular subject to a disposable object Like cinema it involves a crucial choice about what to cut and what to keep The X List Jami Bernard, 2009-04-20 National Society of Film Critics dares to go where few mainstream critics have gone before to the heart of what gets the colored lights going as they say in A Streetcar Named Desire Here is their take on the films that quicken their and our pulses an enterprise both risky and risque an entertaining overview of the most arousing films Hollywood has every produced But make no mistake about it This isn't a collection of esoteric critic's choice movies The films reflect individual taste rubbing against the grain of popular wisdom And because of the personal nature of the erotic forces at play these essays will reveal more about the individual critics than perhaps they have revealed thus far to their readers The Society is a world renowned marquee name organization embracing some of America's most distinguished critics more than forty writers who have followings nationally as well as devoted local constituencies in such major cities as New York Chicago Los Angeles Boston Philadelphia Atlanta and Minneapolis Yes The X List will have something for every lover of film and for every lover

Citizen Sarris, American Film Critic Emanuel Levy, 2001 This collection of essays pays tribute to Andrew Sarris the most influential film critic in American film history A noted film personality Sarris occupies a unique position walking the line between popular journalism and more academic scholarship He began his career in the 1950s with a passion for film and an eloquent style of prose that led him to become a prominent voice in the film world As a writer and editor for the Village Voice at its prime Sarris reached and educated a whole generation of readers and became respected by academics and critics all over the world The thirty eight essays assembled here and arranged according to major themes demonstrate the amazing impact Sarris has had on every aspect of the film world fellow critics filmmakers readers and American popular culture Contributors include noted critics Leonard Maltin and Molly Haskell film scholars David Bordwell and James Naremore and directors Martin Scorsese Robert Benton and John Sayles

Proceedings of the 2023 2nd International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities and Arts (SSHA 2023) Mohd Fauzi bin Sedon, Intakhab Alam Khan, Mehmet CÜNEYT BİRKÖK, KinSun Chan, 2023-06-29 This is an open access book With the progress of social civilization social science and its research are becoming more and more important Theoretically and practically the study of social phenomena and social problems and the development of prosperous social sciences are the eternal themes of human beings At present social science research and its results can hardly meet the needs of social development especially the unscientific evaluation of social science results which has aroused great concern from all walks of life and has produced dirt and questions on social science thus affecting the proper development of social science Max Weber once said that the most important function of social science in modern times is to keep people clear headed and to resist the delusions of prophetic legislators Humanities and arts are the process of perceiving realizing thinking manipulating and expressing objective or subjective objects through capturing and excavating feeling and analyzing integrating and applying or displaying the stage results in the form obtained through feeling seeing hearing smelling touching The social sciences and humanities and arts contain content that will directly affect our lives and the way society functions And by reacting to today's increasingly intricate problems and situations through systematic and professional discussions they will further contribute to the improvement of institutions and the development of society By thinking about issues and looking at problems and the world from different perspectives by putting the two together it may be possible to have more comprehensive appropriate and better responses for example the development of laws requires a deeper understanding of the environment in which they are implemented international trade requires a certain understanding of the customs of different countries and the development of tax and economic policies requires a certain understanding of the population consumer demand etc

General History of Chinese Film I Ding Yaping, 2021-10-25 The early years of the history of Chinese film have lately been the subject of resurgent interest and a growing body of scholarship has come to recognise and identify an extraordinarily diverse and complex period This volume explores the development of Chinese film from 1896 to 1949 The volume covers the screening of foreign films in Shanghai Hong Kong and other coastal cities in China the technological and industrial development of Chinese national cinema key filmmakers and actors of early Chinese cinema changing modes of representation and narration as well as the social and cultural contexts within which early Chinese films were produced and circulated The relationship between the War of Resistance against Japan and the Chinese civil war and Chinese film is also explored The book will be essential reading for scholars and students in film studies Chinese studies cultural studies and media studies helping readers develop a comprehensive understanding of Chinese film
