Comparative Mysticism Steven T. Katz,2013 This collection of primary texts introduces readers to the mystical literature of the world s great religious traditions Beginning with an introduction by Steven T Katz a leading scholar of mysticism the anthology comprises poetry prayer narrative and other writings from Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Buddhist Taoist Confucianist and Native American traditions This collection provides readers not only with the primary mystical texts from each religious tradition but with an explanation of the context of the source and tradition Comparative Mysticism shows how the great mystical traditions of the world are deeply rooted in the religious traditions from which they originated The contextual methodological approach taken throughout the anthology also addresses the critical question of what these mystical traditions at their highest level have in common Despite the prevailing view that mystical traditions throughout the world are essentially similar the presentation of the sources in this volume suggests that in fact the various traditions have distinct teachings and different metaphysical goals The writings collected in Comparative Mysticism address the most fundamental and important methodological epistemological and hermeneutical questions regarding the study and interpretation of mysticism and mystical sources across cultures This anthology will be an invaluable resource to students and scholars of mystic tradition for years to come

Metaphor, Making and Mysticism Sheila Gallagher, Louise Nelstrop, Lydia Shahan, 2025-10-24 This volume focuses on the interplay between metaphor making and mysticism and sheds new light on the power of the metaphorical and creative dimensions of the mystical for the twenty first century It explores the ways a variety of mystical writers deal with metaphor and image by bringing together chapters from interdisciplinary vantage points theological philosophical historical artistic and literary The book touches on a range of historical and contemporary figures including Jalal al Din al Rumi John of Ruusbroec Hadewijch John Scottus Eriugena and Edward Abbey In reviewing the place of metaphor in mystical texts both Christian and Islamic the contributions reflect on the hard and difficult places both metaphor and mysticism can bring us to They explore contemporary artists engagement with the mystical and how these open up new ways of reimagining our present moving us beyond static categories such as religion versus secular and Christianity versus Islam Overall the book highlights the potential of mysticism to push us beyond comfortable spaces and associations and considers the language and images used to do so

Rumi Mehrdad Rahmani, 2021-05-28 The foundation and elixir of life is Love and Rumi the great Iranian poet calls it The Scales of Divine Secretes Love is the root of all if the root rots then everything else decays When love is truly rooted in the mind and soul then nothing can fade or perish it More than any time in the history of mankind we need to free ourselves from Subjective Me which has contaminated our souls and dictates us the action to be taken in every step of the way Instead we ought to take paces toward Intrinsic Me which is well aware of what needs to be done The former originates from the imperious self and the latter emanates from Love and Respect which in turn restores the self in search of Truth of Life In more than 800 years ago you will be surprised to find that Rumi has repeatedly emphasized on the word Love in his 44000 couplets poetry sonnets book Contrary to his poetry sonnets quatrains are simple to understand delicate and lovely and with very powerful messages on how to live your life happily here and after In one of his quatrains he says to the self O Nothing Do not coil yourself over nothing for nothing What remains forever is just Love This signifies the fact that everything in life such as youth wealth beauty prestige dignity and so forth are perishable but love Don t be confused what he means here is that enjoy all the things that life has offered you for a better living but do not be attached Share your love with others and even things and respect their existence so that they return their love and respect back to you I strongly encourage everyone to read these 100 quatrains book to enjoy the benefit of his guidance in love and loving In addition you can learn some Farsi language words in a very small scale in a short time

Haféz Haleh Pourafzal, Roger Montgomery, 2004-03-03 An exploration of the Persian poet s spiritual philosophy with original translations of his poetry Features extensive insight into the meanings and contexts of the poetry and philosophies of this spiritual teacher Includes over 30 complete poems by Haf z including The Wild Deer often regarded as his masterpiece For 600 years the Persian poet Haf z has been read recited quoted and loved by millions of people in his homeland and throughout the world Like his predecessor Rumi he is a spiritual guide in our search for life's essence Hafiz is both a mystic philosopher and a heartfelt poet of desires and fears Hafiz Teachings of the Philosopher of Love is the perfect introduction to the man known as the philosopher of love whose message of spiritual transcendence through rapture and service to others is especially important to our troubled world His wisdom speaks directly to the cutting edge of philosophy psychology social theory and education and can serve as a bridge of understanding between the West and the Middle East two cultures in desperate need of mutual empathy

The Cambridge History of World Literature

Debjani Ganguly, 2021-09-09 World Literature is a vital part of twentieth first century critical and comparative literary studies As a field that engages seriously with function of literary studies in our global era the study of World literature requires new approaches The Cambridge History of World Literature is founded on the assumption that World Literature is not all literatures of the world nor a canonical set of globally successful literary works It highlights scholarship on literary works that focus on the logics of circulation drawn from multiple literary cultures and technologies of the textual While not rejecting the nation as a site of analysis these volumes will offer insights into new cartographies the hemispheric the oceanic the transregional the archipelagic the multilingual local that better reflect the multi-scalar and spatially dispersed nature of literary production It will interrogate existing historical methodological and cartographic boundaries and showcase humanistic and literary endeavors in the face of world-scale environmental and humanitarian catastrophes

Words Of

Gratitude Mind Body & Soul Robert A. Emmons, 2009-07-27 The test of all happiness said G.K. Chesterton is gratitude Learning to experience gratitude involves being grateful as an attitude not as a reaction when good things occur To be grateful one does not need to wait until things are perfect In fact practicing gratitude makes one receptive to life's blessings and these blessings continue as we continue to be thankful In one study described by author Robert Emmons participants who wrote about five things for which they were grateful experienced more positive emotional states and were more likely to help others over a period of ten weeks than were participants who wrote about the hassles and stressors they experienced during the same time Love wholeheartedly says Brother David Steindl-Rast be surprised give thanks and praise then you will discover the fullness of your life Gratitude provides gifts to both the giver and the receiver and this illuminating book will inspire readers to recognize just how truly blessed we are

Poetry in a Global Age

Jahan Ramazani, 2020-10-29 Ideas culture and capital flow across national borders with unprecedented speed but we tend not to think of poems as taking part in globalization Jahan Ramazani shows that poetry has much to contribute to understanding literature in an extra-national frame Indeed the globality of poetry he argues stands to energize the transnational turn in the humanities Poetry in a Global Age builds on Ramazani's award-winning A Transnational Poetics a book that had a catalytic effect on literary studies Ramazani broadens his lens to discuss modern and contemporary poems not only in relation to world literature war and questions of orientalism but also in light of current debates over ecocriticism translation studies tourism and cultural geography He offers brilliant readings of postcolonial poets like Agha Shahid Ali Lorna Goodison and Daljit Nagra as well as canonical modernists such as W B Yeats Wallace Stevens T S Eliot and Marianne Moore Ramazani shows that even when poetry seems locally rooted its long memory of forms and words its connections across centuries continents and languages make it a powerful imaginative resource for a global age This book makes a strong case for poetry in the future development of world literature and global studies

Darvish Linda L. Naimi, 2007-11 Darvish is a tale of love faith betrayal and revenge 1925 was a year of endings and beginnings The Qajar Dynasty ended in a bloodless coup giving rise to the rule of Reza Shah and the birth of the Pahlavi Dynasty And in the northern province of Gilan a young mother lay dying With her last breath she named the child cut from her womb Thus began the tragic life of Morteza Ali Tormented by a past he can not escape and a future that eludes him at every step Morteza Ali finds solace and guidance in the voices that speak to him in his darkest hours As Darvish a self proclaimed holy man he walks a slippery path between light and darkness Was he a messiah or a madman a martyr or a murderer The reader will be captivated by the power of ancient legends the timeless wisdom of parables and the beauty of Persian poetry that infuse and enrich this tragic tale Walk the path of Darvish Discover for yourself the fine line between majesty and tragedy the forces that shape the destinies of all men

Imperial Identity in the Mughal Empire Lisa Balabanlilar, 2015-12-13 Having monopolized Central Asian politics and culture for over a century the Timurid ruling elite was forced from its ancestral homeland in Transoxiana at the turn of the sixteenth century by an invading Uzbek tribal confederation The Timurids travelled south establishing themselves as the new rulers of a region roughly comprising modern Afghanistan Pakistan and northern India and founding what would become the Mughal Empire 1526 1857 The last survivors of the House of Timur the Mughals drew invaluable political capital from their lineage which was recognized for its charismatic genealogy and court culture the features of which are examined here By identifying Mughal loyalty to Turco Mongol institutions and traditions Lisa Balabanlilar here positions the Mughal dynasty at the centre of the early modern Islamic world as the direct successors of a powerful political and religious tradition

Women Called to the Path of Rumi Abū Saʿīd ibn Abī al-Khayr, Shakina Reinhertz, 2001 These poems deal with longing for union with God the desire to know the Real from the false the inexpressible beauty of creation when seen through the eyes of Love and the many attitudes of heart mind and feeling necessary to those who would find the Beloved The Friend in this life
