verbal communication with visions of various kinds possibly brought about by epileptic seizures Despite his long winded turgid prose Bodman s poems are curiously modern in their diction He wrote in an ejaculatory manner not seen in America until Emily Dickinson s work was published seventy five years later and more idiomatic than anyone else s in America until nearly the end of the nineteenth century Bodman s inspiration was far less literary than experiential providing a link between the work of Edward Taylor and Walt Whitman in the chain of the Transcendentalists Lewis Turco brings together Bodman s curiously modern poems here for the first time while providing an understanding of his life and family
