Og Mandino's University of Success Og Mandino, 2011-01-12 The greatest success authorities in the world share their most treasured success secrets Each powerful lesson will bring you closer to your life's goals How to conquer the ten most common causes of failure How to make the most of your abilities How to find the courage to take risks How to stop putting things off How to build your financial nest egg How to look like a winner How to take charge of your life And much more in fifty memorable presentations by the greatest success authorities Dean of this unique University of Success is Og Mandino the most acclaimed self help writer of this generation The faculty he has assembled includes such celebrities as Dr Wayne W Dyer Dale Carnegie W Clement Stone Napoleon Hill George S Clason Nena and George O Neil Dr Joyce Brothers Michael Korda Lord Beaverbrook Dr Norman Vincent Peale and many more winners in life Sexidemic Lawrence R. Samuel, 2013-02-07 Sexidemic is the first real cultural history of sexuality in the United States since the end of World War II For a people who supposedly love sex the author argues Americans have had no shortage of problems with it Since the end of World War II in fact we've had a contentious relationship with sexuality the subject a source of considerable tension and controversy on both an individual and societal level Rather than being a simple pleasure of life something to be enjoyed sex has served as a challenging and disruptive force in many Americans' everyday lives for the last two thirds of a century Our love affair with sex has thus been a rocky one filled with bumps in the road that have caused major instability across our cultural landscape Our individualistic competitive consumerist and anxious national character is both reflected in and reinforced by this sexidemic something few have recognized or perhaps want to admit By charting the cultural trajectory of sex in America since the end of World War II Sexidemic reveals how the nation's continual woes with sexuality helped make us an anxious insecure people The sex lives of many perhaps most Americans have been in a perpetual state of crisis a constant source of concern We've fretted over every dimension of it with problems in both quality and quantity With this unhealthy view of sexuality it was not surprising that we felt we needed a variety of potions and gadgets to make it happen or be pleasurable In tracing the cultural trajectory of sex in our society Samuel illustrates our bipolar approach to sexuality low

libido and sex addiction emerged as common disorders and sex scandal after sex scandal has made headlines especially over the last couple of years Only money has surpassed sex as a source of stress for Americans indeed sex has come to be seen and treated as a commodity In this timely work the author traces the role sex plays in our society how it shapes us and the world around us and how we got where we are today in our views treatment and practice of sex and sexuality in our everyday lives

Becoming an Ex Helen Rose Fuchs Ebaugh, 2013-11-22 The experience of becoming an ex is common to most people in modern society Unlike individuals in earlier cultures who usually spent their entire lives in one marriage one career one religion one geographic locality people living in today's world tend to move in and out of many roles in the course of a lifetime During the past decade there has been persistent interest in these passages or turning points but very little research has dealt with what it means to leave behind a major role or incorporate it into a new identity Helen Rose Fuchs Ebaugh's pathbreaking inquiry into the phenomenon of becoming an ex reveals the profundity of this basic aspect of establishing an identity in contemporary life Ebaugh is herself an ex having left the life of a Catholic nun to become a wife mother and professor of sociology Drawing on interviews with 185 people Ebaugh explores a wide range of role changes including ex convicts ex alcoholics divorced people mothers without custody of their children ex doctors ex cops retirees ex nuns and perhaps most dramatically transsexuals As this diverse sample reveals Ebaugh focuses on voluntary exits from significant roles What emerges are common stages of the role exit process from disillusionment with a particular identity to searching for alternative roles to turning points that trigger a final decision to exit and finally to the creation of an identity as an ex Becoming an Ex is a challenging and influential study that will be of great interest to sociologists mental health counselors members of self help groups such as Alcoholics Anonymous and Parents Without Partners those in corporate settings where turnover has widespread implications for the organization and for anyone struggling through a role exit who is trying to establish a new sense of self

Surviving Grief ... and Learning to Live Again Catherine M. Sanders, 2015-08-13 An insightful compassionate account of the grieving process that helps us through the pain and isolation experienced with the loss of a loved one We're never really prepared for the loss of someone we love Thrown into a state of emotional chaos we experience rage guilt anxiety and intense sadness all at once It's the oldest story in the world we tell ourselves millions of people have had to cope with this before and yet we always believe that what we are experiencing is unique to us We feel isolated in our anguish and often ashamed of what we are feeling A profoundly compassionate and insightful book Surviving Grief Learning to Live Again offers you the support and understanding you need to get you through this difficult time Written by Dr Catherine Sanders a therapist and researcher specializing in bereavement issues and one who has lived through the loss of close family members it helps you to see that what you are feeling is part of a natural process of readjustment and renewal According to Dr Sanders grieving like any other natural regenerative process must be allowed to run its proper course if we are ever to regain our equilibrium and continue on with our lives To help us better understand the process she describes the five universal phases of grief Shock Awareness of Loss Conservation and The Need to Withdraw Healing and Renewal and guides us through each Drawing directly from her own experiences and those of her clients and her research studies she delves deeply and compassionately into the different experiences of grief and talks about what it means to lose a mate a parent or a child And she discusses the factors that can have an influence on the grieving process such as age gender and the circumstances surrounding the loved one's death
