Lee, 2018-02-12 Authenticity has begun to rival development as a key to understanding the political aspirations of the Islamic world Almost everywhere modernity has laid waste to tradition those habits and practices deemed to be timeless and true Imperialism carried European notions of progress into Muslim dominated parts of the globe and subsequently Muslims themselves espoused Western practices techniques and philosophies Regimes calling themselves liberal socialist and Arab nationalist all embraced modernity as their principal objective Most of these regimes failed to create the promised better lives their citizens desired Moreover ordinary Muslims felt despair as modernity ripped apart families exposed youngsters to the materialism and hedonism of Western entertainments heightened social expectations and undermined religious belief Even though tradition has proved itself incapable of staving off modernity the promises and premises of modern development literature have been called into question Where is the truth around which Muslims can rally Does modernity require a rejection of tradition Does the embrace of Islamic ideas necessitate turning away from modernity Robert D Lee explores these compelling questions by presenting four contemporary Muslim writers Muhammad Iqbal Sayyid Qutb Ali Shari ati and Mohammed Arkoun all of whom have refused to bow to such a dichotomy of modernity and tradition This study examines their efforts deeply influenced by European thinking to find a truth beyond tradition and modernity an authentic understanding of Islam upon which Muslims can build a future All four thinkers believe such an authentic understanding can serve as the foundation for a new politics Lee argues however that each of these versions of authenticity suffers shortcomings and falters in its efforts to move from the particularity of culture onto a grander scale of political organization appropriate for the modern world

Publisher and Bookseller ,1981 Colonialism as Civilizing Mission Harald Fischer-Tiné, Michael Mann, 2004 Inherent in colonialism was the idea of self legitimation the most powerful tool of which was the colonizer s claim to bring the fruits of progress and modernity to the subject people In colonial logic people who were different because they were inferior had to be made similar and hence equal by civilizing them However once this equality had been attained the very basis for colonial rule would vanish Colonialism as Civilizing Mission explores British colonial ideology at work in South Asia Ranging from studies on sport and national education and pulp fiction to infanticide psychiatric therapy and religion these essays on the various forms expressions and consequences of the British civilizing mission in South Asia shed light on a topic that even today continues to be an important factor in South Asian politics New Quest ,1981 Martyrdom and Sacrifice in

Islam Meir Hatina, 2016-11-14 Over the years the belief system around self sacrifice has become key to understanding the Middle East and its political relationships with the West although much of the literature and conversation has been restricted to modern concepts of jihadism The recent spate of scholarship relating to suicide bombers and jihadists studies these concepts without a broader understanding of the principle of martyrdom This book expands on the chronology of self sacrifice within Islam and contextualises the use of suicide bombings using details of the rise of martyrdom in places such as Iraq Lebanon Chechnya and Pakistan It historicises the background in which jihad has been glorified while also exploring contemporary methods of recruitment like the use of the internet The authors pay close attention to the different sects and factions of Islam and the differing interpretations of jihad that accompany these ideologies In the current political climate a book that explores martyrdom within the framework of historical perspectives geographical regions and the influence of outside cultures is essential

Philosophy in Colonial India Sharad Deshpande, 2015-05-13 This volume focuses on the gradual emergence of modern Indian philosophy through the cross cultural encounter between indigenous Indian and Western traditions of philosophy during the colonial period in India specifically in the 19th and early 20th centuries This volume acknowledges that what we take Indian philosophy or modern Indian philosophy to mean today is the sub text of a much wider complex and varied Indian reception of the West during the colonial period Consisting of twelve chapters and a thematic introduction the volume addresses the role of academic philosophy in the cultural and social ferment of the colonial period in India and its impact on the development of cross cultural philosophy the emergence of a cosmopolitan consciousness in colonial India as also the philosophical contribution of India to cultural globalization The issue of colonialism and emergence of new identities in India has engaged the critical attention of scholars from diverse fields of inquiry such as history sociology politics and subaltern studies However till today the emergence of modern Indian philosophy remains an unexplored area of inquiry Much of the academic philosophical work of this period despite its manifest philosophical originality and depth stands largely ignored not only abroad but even in India This neglect needs to be overcome by a re-reading of philosophical writings in English produced by scholars located in the universities of colonial India This edited volume will facilitate further explorations into the presence of colonial tensions as they are visible in the writings of modern Indian academic philosophers like B N Seal Hiralal Halder Rasvihar Das G R Malkani K C Bhattacharyya G N Mathrani and others

Understanding Terrorism and Political Violence Dipak K. Gupta, 2008-03-25 This book explains the lifecycle of terrorist organizations from an innovative theoretical perspective combining economics with social psychology It provides a new approach to understanding human behaviour in organized society and then uses this to analyze the forces shaping the lifecycle of violent political movements Economic and rational choice theorists assume that human beings are motivated only by self utility yet terrorism is ultimately an altruistic act in the eyes of its participants This book highlights the importance of the desire to belong to a group as a motivating factor and argues that all of us face an eternal trade off between selfishness and community concern This hypothesis is explored through four key groups the IRA in Northern Ireland Al Qaeda Hamas and the Naxalites in India Through this the book analyzes the birth growth transformation and demise of violent political movements and ends with an analysis of the conditions which determine the outcome of the war against terrorism Understanding Terrorism and Political Violence will be essential reading for advanced students of terrorism studies and political science and of great interest to students of social psychology and sociology

The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities Amanullah De Sondy, 2013-11-07 Rigid notions of masculinity are causing crisis in the global Islamic community These are articulated from the Qur'an and its commentary historical precedents and societal religious and familial obligations Some Muslims who don't agree with narrow constructs of manliness feel forced to consider themselves secular and therefore outside the religious community In order to evaluate whether there really is only one valid ideal Islamic masculinity The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities explores key figures of the Qur'an and Indian Pakistani Islamic history and exposes the precariousness of tight constraints on Islamic manhood By examining Qur'anic arguments and the strict social responsibilities advocated along with narrow Islamic masculinities Amanullah De Sondy shows that God and women to whom Muslim men relate but are different from often act as foils for the construction of masculinity He argues the constrainers of masculinity have used God and women to think with and to dominate through and that rigid gender roles are the product of a misguided enterprise the highly personal relationship between humans and God does not lend itself to the organization of society because that relationship cannot be typified and replicated Discussions and debates surrounding Islamic masculinities are quickly finding their place in the study of Islam and Muslims and The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities makes a vital contribution to this emerging field

Gender, Sexuality and Feminism in Pakistani Urdu Writing Amina Yaqin, 2022-03-08 In this book the author critically interrogates the construction of gender community and nation in the work of progressive women poets The book combines the study of nation and community through a close engagement with Urdu literary culture in the twentieth century and particularly the work of pioneering literary women It argues that gender and sexuality become fixed signifiers in the trauma of partition and the formation of the post partition Islamic nation The story of literary women in Pakistan taking up the mantle of public poets thus has to be understood in relation to the history of reform anti colonial resistance and a transnational Islamicate culture The book examines the presence of feminist thought in the work of progressive women poets charting their interrogation of the clash between secular and sacred values and the increasing split between liberal and Islamic nationalism The book suggests that through their writing and experiences women have negotiated sacred and secular spaces to move beyond a community that is subservient to nationalist ideology
