Shirin Neshat Two Installations:

Shirin Neshat, Two Installations Bill Horrigan, Shirin Neshat, 2000 One of the most exciting and important young artists of the past decade Iranian born Shirin Neshat has addressed issues of nation colonialism and gender in a variety of media always challenging our preconceptions about art and society She is particularly renowned for her film installations which have been featured at several Whitney Biennials and this new catalogue accompanies Rapture and Fervor the second and third films in a trilogy exploring the social political and psychological dimensions of women's experience in contemporary Islamic societies The emphasis here is on the interplay between the explicit text and the implicit subtext in Islamic ritual and how the emotions stirred up by these rituals can take on mercurial and contradictory forms Shirin Neshat Steven Henry Madoff, Mahnaz Afkhami, 2015 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition Shirin Neshat Facing History organized by the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden Smithsonian Institution Washington DC May 18 September 20 2015 Title page verso Translation and Transgression in the Art of Shirin Neshat Erin C. Devine, 2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat's work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat's evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat's hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women's studies and Iranian studies After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement Shirin Neshat Shirin Neshat, 2002 The conflict between Shirin Neshat's home country Iran and the United States has become the catalyst for her art This illustrated guide documents all of her work and her struggle to give voice to Iranian women using video and photography Shirin Neshat : Nationalgalerie im Hamburger Bahnhof,

Video Art Theory Helen Westgeest, 2015-06-15 Video Art Theory A Comparative Approach demonstrates how video art functions on the basis of a comparative media approach providing a crucial understanding of video as a medium in contemporary art and of the visual mediations we encounter in daily life A critical investigation of the visual media and selected video artworks which contributes to the understanding of video as a medium in contemporary art The only study specifically devoted to theorizing the medium of video from the perspective of prominent characteristics which result from how video works deal with time space representation and narrative The text has emerged out of the author's own lectures and seminars on video art Offers a comparative approach which students find especially useful offering new perspectives

In a Queer Time and Place J. Jack Halberstam, 2005-01-01 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In his first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity J Jack Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space He presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon's story Boys Don't Cry Halberstam turns his attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves He examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others He then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place

Screens Kate Mondloch, 2013-11-30 Media screens film video and computer screens have increasingly pervaded both artistic production and everyday life since the 1960s Yet the nature of viewing artworks made from these media along with their subjective effects remains largely unexplored Screens addresses this gap offering a historical and theoretical framework for understanding screen reliant installation art and the spectatorship it evokes Examining a range of installations created over the past fifty years that investigate the rich terrain between the sculptural and the cinematic including works by artists such as Eija Liisa Ahtila Doug Aitken Peter Campus Dan Graham VALIE EXPORT Bruce Nauman and Michael Snow Kate Mondloch traces the construction of screen spectatorship in art from the seminal film and video installations of the 1960s and 1970s to the new media artworks of today s digital culture Mondloch identifies a momentous shift in contemporary art that challenges key premises of spectatorship brought about by technological objects that literally and metaphorically filter the subject s field of vision As a result she proposes that contemporary viewers are quite literally screen subjects and offers the unique critical leverage of art as an alternative way to understand media culture and contemporary visuality

Religion and Contemporary Art Ronald R. Bernier, Rachel Hostetter Smith, 2023-05-11 Religion and Contemporary Art sets the theoretical frameworks and interpretive strategies for exploring the re emergence of religion in the making exhibiting and discussion of contemporary art Featuring essays from both established and emerging scholars critics and artists the book reflects on what might be termed an accord between contemporary art and religion It explores the common strategies contemporary artists employ in the interface between religion and contemporary art practice It also includes case studies to provide more in depth treatments of specific artists grappling with themes such as ritual abstraction mythology the body popular culture science liturgy and social justice among other themes It is a must read resource for working artists critics and scholars in this field and an invitation to new voices curious about its promises and possibilities

A History of the Western Art Market Titia Hulst, 2023-04-28 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling evidence of art s inherent commercial dimension and show how artists dealers and collectors have interacted over time from the city states of Quattrocento Italy to the high stakes markets of postmillennial New York and Beijing This approach casts a startling new light on the traditional concerns of art history and aesthetics revealing much that is provocative profound and occasionally even comic This volume s unique historical perspective makes it appropriate for use in college courses and postgraduate and professional programs as well as for professionals working in art related environments such as museums galleries and auction houses This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 2017 This is the first sourcebook to trace the emergence and evolution of art markets in the Western economy framing them within the larger narrative of the ascendancy of capitalist markets Selected writings from across academic disciplines present compelling
