Meditations For The Humanist:

Meditations for the Humanist A. C. Grayling, 2003-11 Meditations for the humanist is a wide ranging magnanimous inquiry into the philosophical and ethical questions that bear most strongly on the human condition Containing nearly fifty linked commentaries on topics ranging from love lying perseverance revenge racism religion history loyalty health and leisure Meditations for the humanist does not offer definitive statements but rather prompts to reflection For those wishing to explore ethical issues outside the framework of organized religious belief Meditations for the humanist offers an inviting map to the country of philosophical reflection

Meditations of a Humanist Emil Weitzner, 1959 The Humanist's Devotional Jessica Hagy, 2019-11-04 The Humanist's Devotional connects quotations and aphorisms to build a conversation between voices from ancient to modern times a conversation that asserts a humanism that's bravely authentic with a message that our world is absolutely and wonderfully fascinating The result is a book of daily devotionals or meditations that are not centered on a god or religion but on a mindset humanism as a function of learned history and a coping mechanism for a hectic and unnerving world

Secular Meditation Rick Heller, 2015-10-01 Meditation is a form of mental exercise with numerous scientifically verified physical and psychological benefits As meditation teacher Rick Heller shows the benefits of the practice extend beyond the personal to enrich relationships with others with one's community and with the world In Secular Meditation step by step instructions personal stories and provocative questions teach empathy for others stress reduction and the kind of in the moment living that fosters appreciation for life and resilience in the face of adversity Heller simplifies what is often found mysterious describing and providing detailed instructions for thirty two different practices ensuring that anyone can find the right one
