blurring the lines between our knowledge of life and our beliefs about the afterlife In this work of spiritual scholarship academic researcher Daniel Bourke explores the moment of death from a deeply illuminating perspective giving readers unprecedented access to mystifying corners of paranormal study From the temples of ancient Egypt to the hospital rooms of the twenty first century from the works of Homer to the monks of the Middle Ages from the saint to the shaman Bourke examines the crisis apparition and the phenomena of the living ghost in legend lyric and lore demonstrating their universal nature for the first time He shares profound accounts from a wide range of sources including history literature folklore theology and contemporary culture to reveal how widespread these ghostly encounters are throughout the ages In demonstrating how these remarkable encounters with living ghosts aren't fearsome experiences but leave the recipient full of healing and hope this book offers insight into how the beloved dead seem to communicate and the intertwined nature of humanity in this world and the next

Technical Report Human Resources Research Organization,1969 Education for a New Colombia Richard R. Renner,1971 Social Anthropology and Language Edwin Ardener,2013-10-08 Providing a critical framework for the consideration of the relationship between modern social anthropology and linguistics this volume covers topics such as classification symbolism and structuralism The relevance of the works of Saussure L vi Strauss and Chomsky is considered There are two case studies the first outlines a social history of the succession of pidgins that are documented on the West African coast ending with Pidgin English The second analyzes the status of three language varieties used in a trilingual community in the Carnian Alps Originally published in 1971 Marijuana Boom Lina Britto,2020-03-24 Before Colombia became one of the world's largest producers of cocaine in the 1980s traffickers from the Caribbean coast partnered with American buyers in the 1970s to make the South American country the main supplier of marijuana for a booming US drug market fueled by the US hippie counterculture How did Colombia become central to the creation of an international drug trafficking circuit Marijuana Boom is the story of this forgotten history Combining deep archival research with unprecedented oral history Lina Britto deciphers a puzzle Why did the Colombian coffee republic a model of Latin American representative democracy and economic modernization transform into a drug paradise and at what cost Man in Adaptation Yehudi A. Cohen,2022-04-19 Underlying the anthropological study of man is the principle that there is a reality to which man must adapt if he is to survive Reproduce and to perpetuate himself Populations must adapt to the realities of the physical world and maintain a proper fit between their biological makeup and the pressures of the various niches of the world in which they seek to live Social groups where culture is found must develop adaptive mechanisms in the organization of their social relations if there is to be order regularity and predictability in patterns of cooperation and competition and if they are to survive as viable units This three volume set of readings presents an introduction to anthropology that is unified and made systematic by focus on adaptations that have accompanied the evolution of man from non human primate to inhabitant of vast urban areas in modern industrial societies Man in Adaptation The Cultural Present introduces Cultural Anthropology also from the point of view of adaptation and provides coherence for the study of human societies from man's social beginnings to the present. The book deals sequentially with the more and more complex technologies and political and social structures that have enabled different societies to make effective use of the energy potentials in their habitats. This and the two companion volumes are the first attempt to unify the disparate subject matter of anthropology within a single and powerful explanatory framework. They incorporate the work of the most renowned anthropological experts on man and they illuminate clearly one of the most important concepts around which one can build an investigation of the nature and scope of anthropology itself. For these reasons they are recognized as indispensable reading for every professional anthropologist and as perhaps the best available means of introducing new students to the field.

Recent advances in the Archaeology of the Northern Andes Augusto Oyuela-Calcedo, J. Scott

Raymond, 1998-12-31 The Northern Andes is a pivotal region for understanding many of the social economic political and ideological changes that pre-Columbian cultures experienced. Topics include recent investigations on human colonisation of the region, origins of sedentism and food production, rise of chiefdoms and importance of symbolism and iconography.

Muddied Waters Nancy P. Appelbaum, 2003 Claims that Colombia's present day regional and local hierarchies were shaped by 19th and 20th century processes of colonization and that regionalism and race are tied into Colombia's history of violence.

CRC World Dictionary of Plant Names Umberto Quattrocchi, 2023-02-03 This volume provides the origins and meanings of the names of genera and species of extant vascular plants with the genera arranged alphabetically from D to L.

Dynamics of Deep Time and Deep Place Laura Doyle, Simon Gikandi, Mwangi wa Githinji, 2025-04-10 Dynamics of Deep Time and Deep Place comprises one volume in an unprecedented three volume set collectively subtitled Decolonial Reconstellations. Together with Volume Two Dissolving Master Narratives and Volume Three Reconceiving Identities in Political Economy it gathers thinkers from across world regions and disciplines who reconfigure critical global thought. Collaboratively conceived, the volumes are founded on the observation that we cannot fully uproot the epistemological material violence of coercive systems nor fully re-imagine more ethical visions of planetary community without shared attention to the deeper histories of place and peoples that shape the present. Accordingly, the volumes gather social scientists and humanists, Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars and intersectional and materialist thinkers who reconceptualize longue durée history and its afterlives. They engage in the dual project to dismantle eurocentric colonial and androcentric frameworks and to make visible the legacies of care and creative world making that have sustained human communities. Uncovering pasts that are as complex and dynamic as the present, the contributors brilliantly transform notions of temporality, relationability, polity, conjuncture, resistance and experimentation within histories of struggle and alliance. They richly decolonize political imaginaries. The co-editors' introductions articulate fresh frameworks of deep place and deep time freed from eurocentric modernity paradigms, indicating pathways toward decolonial collaboration and institutional change.

Decolonial Reconstellations offers invaluable resources for researchers and teachers in decolonial postcolonial anti colonial and Indigenous studies and will also strongly appeal to feminist anti racist Marxist and critical theory scholars across disciplines

The Construction of Homosexuality David F. Greenberg, 2008-10-29 At various times homosexuality has been considered the noblest of loves a horrible sin a psychological condition or grounds for torture and execution David F Greenberg s careful encyclopedic and important new book argues that homosexuality is only deviant because society has constructed or defined it as deviant The book takes us over vast terrains of example and detail in the history of homosexuality
