Design and Visual Culture from the Bauhaus to Contemporary Art Edit Tóth, 2018-05-16 This book complements the more textually based Bauhaus scholarship with a practice oriented and creative interpretive method which makes it possible to consider Bauhaus related works in an unconventional light Edit Toth argues that focusing on the functionalist approach of the Bauhaus has hindered scholars from properly understanding its design work With a global scope and under studied topics the book advances current scholarly discussions concerning the relationship between image technologies and the body by calling attention to the materiality of image production and strategies of re channeling image culture into material processes and physical body space the space of dimensionality and everyday activity

Bauhaus, 1919-1933 Magdalena Droste, 2002 Seventy years after its foundation in Weimar the Bauhaus has become a concept indeed a catchphrase all over the world The respect which it commands is associated above all with the design it pioneered one which we know describe as Bauhaus style This volume traces the history of Bauhaus

Photography Liz Wells, 2004 This seminal text for photography students identifies key debates in photographic theory stimulates discussion and evaluation of the critical use of photographic images and ways of seeing This new edition retains the thematic structure and text features of its predecessors but also expands coverage on photojournalism digital imaging techniques race and colonialism The content is updated with additional international and contemporary examples and images throughout and the inclusion of colour photos Features of this new edition include Key concepts and short biographies of major thinkers Updated international and contemporary case studies and examples A full glossary of terms a comprehensive bibliography Resource information including guides to public archives and useful websites

New Womanhood and the Bauhaus Alicia Marie Peralta, 2019 During the years 1922 1928 Lucia Moholy operated as an independent photographer at the Bauhaus School in Germany capturing images of students and masters art objects inventively recording the defining architectural elements of the school and pursuing her own experiments in portraits and photograms Immersed in the dynamic radical environment of the Bauhaus Moholy explored the potential for modernist representative photography This dissertation seeks to reclaim Moholy's place as the foundational figure for photography at the Bauhaus and argues for the radicality and unrestrained modernity of her artistic output
