Edwin Henry Nevin

Pillar And The Ground Of Truth:

The Pillar and Ground of Truth Simon Patrick, William Sherlock, 1848 The Pillar and Ground of the Truth Pavel Florensky, 2018-06-05 Pavel Florensky certainly the greatest Russian theologian of the last century is now recognized as one of Russia's greatest polymaths. Known as the Russian Leonardo da Vinci, he became a Russian Orthodox priest in 1911 while remaining deeply involved with the cultural, artistic, and scientific developments of his time. Arrested briefly by the Soviets in 1928, he returned to his scholarly activities until 1933 when he was sentenced to ten years of corrective labor in Siberia. There he continued his scientific work and ministered to his fellow prisoners until his death four years later. This volume is the first English translation of his rich and fascinating defense of Russian Orthodox theology. Originally published in 1914, the book is a series of twelve letters to a brother or friend who may be understood symbolically as Christ. Central to Florensky's work is an exploration of the various meanings of Christian love, which is viewed as a combination of philia (friendship) and agape (universal love). Florensky is perhaps the first modern writer to explore the so-called same-sex unions, which for him are not sexual in nature. He describes the ancient Christian rites of the adelphopoiesis (brother-making), joining male friends in chaste bonds of love. In addition, Florensky is one of the first thinkers in the twentieth century to develop the idea of the Divine Sophia, who has become one of the central concerns of feminist theologians. The Church, 1844 The City of God Edwin Henry Nevin, 1868 The Comprehensive Commentary on the Holy Bible: Acts-Revelation William Jenks, 1839

The House of God Moreno Dal Bello, 2016-02-26 For the time is come that judgement must begin at the House of God, and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the Gospel of God? And if the Righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? 1 Peter 4:17-18. Many view the word Gospel as an ambiguous term; these Scriptures not only refer to the judgement of the ungodly, they actually provide the reader with information as to exactly who the ungodly are and that which qualifies a person as godly. What verse 17 reveals is rather confronting when one looks deeper into the significance of its words. For what these two Scriptures present is no less than an insight into the purpose of election and the inextricable connection between the essentiality of believing the Gospel, a completely unambiguous term, and salvation. These verses reveal the conclusive and irrevocable evidence that only Gospel believers are Righteous in God's eyes; that it is only they who are of the House of God. African-American Holiness Pentecostal Movement Sherry S.

DuPree, 2013-09-13 First Published in 1996, Those of us who aspire to know about the black church in the African American experience are never satisfied. We know so much more about the Christian and church life of black Americans than we did even a dozen years ago, but all the recent discoveries whet our insatiable appetites to know it all. That goal will never be attained, of course, but there do remain many conquerable worlds. Sherry Sherrod DuPree set her mind to conquering one of those worlds. She has persisted with the results detailed here. A huge number of items are available to inform us about Holiness Pentecostal and Charismatic congregations and organizations in the African American Christian community.
