Irreverence and the Sacred Hugh B. Urban, Greg Johnson, 2019 Irreverence and the Sacred brings together some of the most cutting edge interdisciplinary and international scholars working today in order to debate key issues in the critical and comparative study of religion The project is inspired in large part by the work of Bruce Lincoln whose influential and wide ranging scholarship has consistently posed challenging provocative and often irreverent questions that have really pushed the boundaries of the field of religious studies in important sometimes controversial ways Retracing the history of the discipline of religious studies Lincoln argues that the field has tended to champion a validating feel good approach to religion rather than posing more critical questions about religious claims to authority and their role in history politics and social change A critical approach to the history of religions he suggests would focus on the human temporal and material aspects of phenomena that are claimed to have a superhuman eternal or transcendent status This volume takes up Lincoln's challenge to do better by engaging in critical analyses of four key themes in the study of religion myth ritual gender and politics The book also interrogates the politics of scholarship itself critically examining the relations of power and material interests at work in the study as well as the practice of religion The scholars involved in this project include not only some of the most important figures in the American study of religion such as Wendy Doniger Russell McCutcheon Ivan Strenski and Lincoln himself but also European scholars whose work is hugely influential overseas but not as well known in the U S such as Stefan Arvidsson Claude Calame Nicolas Meylan and others

The studies fall into three well defined sections 1 Evolution and Cognition Comparative and Developmental Perspectives 2 Human Sociality Morality and Religiosity 3 Human Sexuality and Mating Strategies Specifying the differences between our own species and the rest of the animal world always provokes debate But these demarcations simply have to be drawn once and again They focus attention and stimulate research exactly because they provoke and challenge other researchers to take up the glove and prove us wrong

The Case for God Karen Armstrong, 2009-09-22 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A nuanced exploration of the role of religion in our lives drawing on insights of the past to build a faith for our dangerously polarized age from the New York Times bestselling author of The History of God Moving from the Paleolithic age to the present Karen Armstrong details the great lengths to which humankind has gone in order to experience a sacred reality that it called by many names such as God Brahman Nirvana Allah or Dao Focusing especially on Christianity but including Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Chinese spiritualities Armstrong examines the diminished impulse toward religion in our own time when a significant number of people either want nothing to do with God or question the efficacy of faith Why has God become unbelievable Why is it that atheists and theists alike now think and speak about God in a way that veers so profoundly from the thinking of our ancestors Answering these questions with the same depth of knowledge and profound insight that have marked all her acclaimed books Armstrong makes clear how the changing face of the world has necessarily changed the importance of religion at both the societal and the individual level Yet she cautions us that religion was never supposed to provide answers that lie within the competence of human reason that she says is the role of logos The task of religion is to help us live creatively peacefully and even joyously with realities for which there are no easy explanations She emphasizes too that religion will not work automatically It is she says a practical discipline its insights are derived not from abstract speculation but from dedicated intellectual endeavor and a compassionate lifestyle that enables us to break out of the prism of selfhood
