Religious Life Today:

In Our Own Words Juliet Mousseau, Sarah Kohles, 2018 Written by a diverse group of younger women religious from North America In Our Own Words offers a collection of essays on issues central to apostolic religious life today The thirteen authors represent different congregations charisms ministries and histories The topics and concerns that shape these chapters emerged naturally through a collaborative process of prayer and conversation Essays focus on the vows and community life individual identity and congregational charisms and leadership among younger members leading into the future The authors hope these chapters may form a springboard for further conversation on religious life inviting others to share their experiences of religious life in today's world Challenge to Religious Life Today Pedro Arrupe, 1979

Apostolic Religious Life in America Today Richard Gribble, 2011-08-17 Apostolic religious life in the United States today is in a state of crisis Signs of this situation are readily apparent and well known to all who practice Roman Catholicism The significant decline in the number of priests and religious and fewer vocations to religious congregations have produced a severe blow to formerly active apostolates and brought grave concern for the future of these ministries While the reasons for this present situation are complex interpretation of the documents of Vatican II is clearly one very important factor Scholars hold two basic interpretations of the Council the hermeneutic of rupture sees the Council as a revolution which placed the Church on a completely new trajectory A second hermeneutic however views the Council as reform with continuity While most literature to date has analyzed the hermeneutic of rupture and the consequent transformation of apostolic religious life this book describes the opposite position Divided into two parts this volume first presents an analysis of the problem and secondly a solution to place apostolic religious life on a positive trajectory in the 21st century The first section of this book describes how the hermeneutic of rupture is an incorrect reading of Vatican II Rather the Council in addressing numerous issues did not break from the past but rather sought to understand Church teaching in more contemporary ways but with continuity to the Tradition Essays in this section describe this misreading of Vatican II the consequent misunderstanding of the evangelical counsels and the rejection of religious signs The second section through an analysis of the writings of Hans Urs von Balthasar Basile Moreau Pope Benedict XVI and a reflection on Perfectae Caritatis provides a solution of Christian love as the operative way to reform apostolic religious life today ABOUT THE EDITOR Richard Gribble C S C is professor of religious studies at Stonehill College He has written four critical biographies including American Apostle of the Family Rosary The Life of Patrick J Peyton C S C and An Archbishop for the People The Life of Edward J Hanna He is a frequent contributor to many journals including The Catholic Historical Review American Catholic Studies and the Journal of Church and State PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This book is a true service to those seeking to understand consecrated apostolic life whether they are themselves members of religious orders and congregations or are among those who love the vocation esteem religious Sisters and desire that this calling be strengthened in the Church Francis Cardinal George O M I

Archbishop of Chicago Finally a book that explains why some attempts of religious congregations to renew themselves after Vatican II succeeded and why so many failed Understanding the radical nature of what the vows really require of a religious community is no small achievement The vision of religious consecration set forth in these essays will be a fine road map for the many new groups springing up out of a desire to serve Christ and the Church Joseph W Koterski S J Professor of Philosophy Fordham University Without a doubt religious life in America today is at a turning point We are well aware of the factors that have brought us to this moment The more interesting and important question is where do we go from here Some have predicted the death of consecrated life as we know it while others have anticipated renewal and re birth This volume indeed views all of religious life in the continuum of the Lord s Paschal Mystery death and resurrection but gives us hope that the call to follow the Lord through the evangelical counsels is far from its predicted end Most Reverend David M O Connell C M J C D Bishop of Trenton A very significant collection of essay Vocations and Their Formation Today Guy

Lespinay,2010 Formation in religious life is a very complex matter Indeed it has become even more so since we live in a time of doubt and uncertainty when religious houses are closing and more than a few religious communities are facing the possibility of extinction for lack of vocations Yet while it is neither popular nor easy to speak positively of religious life and much less of formation for religious life we must find the courage to do so The formation plan has to be clear yet in its clarity it must not become too rigid The author sets out a number of priorities and responsibilities in which the first person responsible for discernment and growth is the candidate himself Without devoting special chapters to each group he considers the differences between monasteries and apostolic congregations focusing a remark here and there for example on the difficulties met in contemplative monasteries where those in formation are few and formation can last 6 to 8 years without a change of spiritual guide This book is extremely valuable for the way in which it draws our attention to details frequently assumed and thus often forgotten reminding us that the young candidate to religious life is truly representative of his or her generation The work also points out a number of snares into which formation communities may fall e g harshly critiquing the candidate or using those in formation as household servants These pitfalls are easily and best avoided In short this is a solid straightforward and faithful book that avoids indulging in illusions as it outlines conditions for a positive journey along the path of formation in religious communities today Book jacket An Introduction to Christian

Spirituality F. Antonisamy,2000 Calling in Today's World Cahalan & Schuurman,2016 The concept of vocation or calling is a distinctively Christian concern grounded in the long held belief that we find our meaning purpose and fulfillment in God But what about religions other than Christianity What does it mean for someone from another faith tradition to understand calling or vocation In this book contributors with expertise in Catholic and Protestant Christianity Judaism Islam Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism and secular humanism explore the idea of calling from these eight faith perspectives from back of book Prophetic Witnesses to Joy Juliet Mousseau,2021-11-08 A life of consecration prefigures what

Christians hope for by calling into question the value of power sexuality and material possessions Religious life challenges the idea that these things alone bring happiness and shows that we can be more fulfilled happier and more whole without being attached to them Furthermore detaching ourselves from these desires allows others to live with more dignity and greater ease as well Consecrated life then is a prophetic witness to the joy of the eschatological call of Christianity In the words of Pope Francis to religious men and women leading up to the Year of Consecrated Religious Wake up the world Be witnesses of a different way of doing things of acting of living

The Fire in These Ashes Joan Chittister,1995 Joan Chittister writes from the perspective of decades of deep involvement in religious life She writes about religious life in the here and now not about the value of its past nor about the possible shape of its future asking a simple question What if anything constitutes the spirituality of contemporary religious life What is the work of religious life now What are the virtues demanded of religious now that take character and test commitment that make the world closer to the reign of God and bring a person closer to the Truth of life
