Placemaking with Children and Youth Victoria Derr, Louise Chawla, Mara Mintzer, 2018-09-18 An illustrated essential guide to engaging children and youth in the process of urban design From a history of children s rights to case studies discussing international initiatives that aim to create child friendly cities Placemaking with Children and Youth offers comprehensive guidance in how to engage children and youth in the planning and design of local environments

It explains the importance of children's active participation in their societies and presents ways to bring all generations together to plan cities with a high quality of life for people of all ages. Not only does it delineate best practices in establishing programs and partnerships, it also provides principles for working ethically with children, youth, and families, paying particular attention to the inclusion of marginalized populations. Drawing on case studies from around the world in Australia, New Zealand, Canada, India, Puerto Rico, the Netherlands, South Africa, and the United States, Placemaking with Children and Youth showcases children's global participation in community design and illustrates how a variety of methods can be combined in initiatives to achieve meaningful change. The book features more than 200 visuals and detailed, thoughtful guidelines for facilitating a multiplicity of participatory processes that include drawing, photography, interviews, surveys, discussion groups, role playing, mapping, murals, model making, city tours, and much more. Whether seeking information on individual methods and project planning, interpreting and analyzing results, or establishing and evaluating a sustained program, readers can find practical ideas and inspiration from six continents to connect learning to the realities of students' lives and to create better cities for all ages.

Hot-Wiring Your Creative Process Curt Cloninger, 2006-10-03 Design philosophies can be useful, but inspiration, creative strategies, and efficient work habits are what really get the job done. Designer, instructor, and author Curt Cloninger provides a multitude of strategies, tools, and practices that readers can use to inject a big dose of creativity into just about any design project. With illustrations drawn from 20th-century French philosophy, medieval manuscripts, punk-rock posters, and more, Curt's innovative text introduces readers to his personal toolkit for hot-wiring the creative process. You'll learn strategies to recognize and believe in your creative powers, develop effective methods for evaluating your own work, draw inspiration from the past, use standard software in experimental ways, and find nonstandard applications to create new effects. Maintain a personal design playground, mine your subconscious with the Oblique Strategies Cards developed by Brian Eno and Peter Schmidt, unstick your imagination by blitz designing mock-ups. Curt Cloninger is an artist, designer, author, and instructor in Multimedia Arts Sciences at the University of North Carolina at Asheville. His book Fresh Styles for Web Designers, Eye Candy from the Underground, New Riders 2002, is an industry standard on creative Web design solutions. Curt's art and design work has been featured in ID Magazine, HOW Magazine, The New York Times Desktop Magazine, and at digital arts festivals from Korea to Brazil. He regularly speaks at international events such as HOW Design South by Southwest, Web Design World, and FILE. His pirate signal broadcasts from lab404.com to facilitate lively dialog.
