Seeing With The Eyes Of Love Eknath Easwaran On The Imitation Of Christ:

Seeing with the Eyes of Love Eknath Easwaran, 1996 Seeing with the Eyes of Love Eknath Easwaran, 1996 Drawing on his intimate knowledge of the mystical tradition Easwaran gives exhilarating glimpses of what love means to Christian mystics Augustine Teresa of Avila Catherine of Genoa and others Seeing with the Eyes of Love Easwaran Eknath, 1996 As we learn to rejoice in Lord God thou holy lover of my soul we begin to glimpse the transformative power of divine love in our lives In this anecdotal warm and intensely practical commentary on Thomas a Kempis's Imitation of Christ Easwaran examines this enduring Christian passage line by line to show us what love is and how to overcome obstacles to loving more fully The Imitation of Christ Thomas à Kempis, 2013-02-07 One of the most influential and well loved books of Christianity The Imitation of Christ by Thomas Kempis appears here in Penguin Classics in a new translation by Robert Jeffery with an introduction by Max Von Habsburg notes a chronology and further reading The Imitation of Christ is a passionate celebration of God's love mercy and holiness which has stimulated religious devotion for over five hundred years With great personal conviction and deep humanity Thomas Kempis 1380-1471 demonstrates the individual's reliance on God and on the words of Christ and the futility of a life without faith as well as exploring the ideas such as humility compassion patience and tolerance Thomas spent some seventy years of his life in the reclusive environment of monasteries yet in this astonishing work he demonstrates an encompassing understanding of human nature while his writing speaks to readers of every age and every nation Thomas Kempis was born at Kempen near Dusseldorf in 1380 He received the priesthood in 1413 Thomas wrote many other devotional works besides The Imitation of Christ his masterpiece as well as biographies of Gerald Groote and Florentius Radewyn He died in 1471 The Very Revd Robert Jeffery was born in 1935 and ordained in 1959 He has written on matters of Church history spirituality mission and ecumenism In 1978 he became Archdeacon of Salop and was Dean of Worcester from 1987-96 and subsequently Canon and Sub Dean of Christ Church Oxford He retired in 2002 and is an Hon Doctor of Divinity of Birmingham University Max von Habsburg is the author of Catholic and Protestant Translations of the Imitatio Christi 1425-1650 2011 The Complete Imitation of Christ Thomas à Kempis, 2012-05-01 Published in over 6 000 editions before the year 1900 The Imitation of Christ has been more widely read than any other book in human history except the Bible itself It has been called the most influential work in Christian literature a landmark in the history of the human mind and the fifth gospel Now and for the first time comes an exhaustive edition of this classic work a work that is bound to become a classic in its own right Fr John Julian introduces Kempis and his Imitation in ways that will shock many who have read the book before For example Protestant devotees to the book may be astounded to discover that Thomas was not only a Roman Catholic but an ardent traditionalist contemplative monk as well And devoted Catholic readers may be amazed to discover that he was a radical moral reformer and part of a group twice formally charged with heresy Notes and introductions to every aspect of The Imitation open the meaning of this classic to the next generation of readers The
