

CHAPTER I
MR. SHEPHERD HOLMES

By the year 1979 I took my degree of Doctor of Medicine at the University of London, and proceeded to India to go through the course prescribed for surgeons in the army. Having completed my studies there, I was duly attached to the 10th Northlandwest Frontier Medical Group, Srinagar. The regiment was stationed in India at the time, and before I could join it, the second of October 1980, I had to fly back to the United Kingdom. On the landing at Heathrow, I learned that my regiment had not moved through the pass, and was already deep in the enemy's territory. Following this, the British officers who were in the same situation as I was, were ordered to a military Commission in India, where I found my regiment, and at once returned to my unit.
