Ships And Seascapes An Introduction To Maritime Prints Drawings And Watercolours:

Ships and Seascapes David Cordingly, 1997 An introduction to maritime prints drawings and watercolours which is written for experts and enthusiasts alike The text includes a historical survey tracing the development of marine art and exploring the technique and subject matter of the pictures Although the most famous seventeenth century Dutch maritime painters are covered the author concentrates on lesser known and less expensive works from 1800 onwards that are readily available to the collector The book addresses important questions about maritime drawings and prints from the subject and location to larger questions of connoisseurship Collecting and Studying Ship Portraits James

Shuttleworth, 2023-06-23 Ship portraits include paintings prints and photographs A ship portrait is often more than just an image of a vessel This book focuses primarily on paintings and prints discussing the content of a portrait and how to interpret the information in it For the new collector and current collector alike students ship modelers and curators this book includes tools to help you navigate sources auctions research flags funnel marks signatures attributions dates condition details and restoration of ship portraits Art and the Sea Emma Roberts, 2022-04-15 This edited collection re examines the relationship between art and the sea reflecting growing interest in the intersections between art and maritime history Artists have always been fascinated by and drawn to the sea and this book considers some of the themes and approaches in art that have evolved as a result of this captivation The chapters consider how an examination of art can provide new insights into existing knowledge of port and maritime history and are representative of a cultural turn in port and maritime studies which is becoming increasingly visible In Art and the Sea multiple perspectives are offered as a result of the contributors individual positions and methodologies some museological others art historical or maritime historical Each chapter proposes a new way of building upon available interpretations of port and maritime history whether this be to reject support or reconsider existing knowledge The book as a whole is a timely addition therefore to the developing body of revisionist texts in port and maritime history The interdisciplinary nature of the volume relates to a current trend for interdisciplinarity in art history and will appeal to those with an interest in art history geography sociology history and transport maritime studies Britain and the Sea Glen O'Hara, 2010-06-30 O'Hara presents the first general history of Britons relationship with the surrounding oceans from 1600 to the present day This all encompassing account covers individual seafarers ship borne migration warfare and the maritime economy as well as the British people's maritime ideas and self perception throughout the centuries

The Billy Ruffian David Cordingly, 2003-10-15 A portrait of a British warship that played a key role during the wartime years of the Napoleonic era describes the ship's service in three crucial sea battles as well as its role in Napoleon's ultimate surrender The Spooner Collection of British Watercolours at the Courtauld Institute Gallery Michael Broughton, William Clarke, Courtauld Institute of Art, Joanna Selborne, Courtauld Institute Galleries, 2005 The Spooner Collection of watercolours is one of the finest of its kind featuring all the leading artists of the period 1750-1850 Notable among them are watercolours of the Lake District by John White Abbott and rural scenes by several artists Gainsborough Turner Cozens Rowlandson Francis Towne Samuel Palmer Architecture dominates the setting in works by Girtin Cotman and Sandby The essays accompanying the catalogue discuss outdoor painting and the role of memory in watercolour painting the connoisseurship and attitudes towards watercolours and give a brief biography of William Wycliffe Spooner himself This complete catalogue of the collection bequeathed by Spooner to the Courtauld Institute is published on the occasion of a touring exhibition of select works from the collection showing at The Worsworth Trust Grasmere The Huntingdon Library California and the Courtauld Institute Gallery London 2005 2006
