Shiraz In The Age Of Hafez The Glory Of A Medieval Persian City:

Shiraz in the Age of Hafez John Limbert, 2004 The fourteenth century Persian city of Shiraz was home to Shams al Din Mohammad Hafez Shirazi a classical poet who remains broadly popular today in modern Iran and among all lovers of great verse traditions As John Limbert notes Hafez s poetry is inseparable from the Iranian spirit a reflection of Iranians intellectual and emotional responses to events

Shiraz in the Age of Hafez John W. Limbert, 2011-10-01 In the fourteenth century Persian city of Shiraz poets composed scholars studied mystics sought hidden truths ascetics prayed and fasted drunkards brawled and princes and their courtiers played deadly games of power This was the world of Shams al Din Mohammad Hafez Shirazi a classical poet who remains broadly popular today in his native Shiraz and in modern Iran as a whole and among all lovers of great verse traditions As John Limbert notes Hafez s poetry is inseparable from the Iranian spirit a reflection of Iranians intellectual and emotional responses to events But if Hafez s endurance derives from the considerable charm of his work it also arises from his sure grounding in the life of his day from a setting so deftly explored by his verse that his depictions of it retain a timeless relevance To fully comprehend and enjoy Hafez and thus to understand a root force in modern Iranian consciousness we must know something of the city in which he lived and wrote In this book Limbert provides not only a rich context for Hafez s poetry but also a comprehensive perspective on a fascinating place in a dynamic time His portrait of this elegant witty poet and his marvelous city will be as valuable to medievalists students of the Middle East and specialists in urban studies as it will be to connoisseurs of world literature

Hafiz and His

Contemporaries Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, 2019-02-28 Despite his towering presence in premodern Persian letters Shams al Din Muhammad Hafiz of Shiraz d 1390 remains an elusive and opaque character for many In order to look behind the hyperbole that surrounds Hafiz s poetry and penetrate the quasi hagiographical film that obscures the poet himself this book attempts a contextualisation of Hafiz that is at once socio political historical and literary Here Hafiz s ghazals short monorhyme broadly amorous lyric poems are read comparatively against similar texts composed by his less studied rivals in the hyper competitive imitative and profoundly intertextual environment of fourteenth century Shiraz By bringing Hafiz s lyric poetry into productive detailed dialogue with that of the counterhegemonic satirist Ubayd Zakani d 1371 and the marginalised Jahan Malik Khatun d after 1391 the most prolific female poet of premodern Iran our received understanding of this most iconic of stages in the development of the Persian ghazal is disrupted and new avenues for literary exploration open up Looking beyond the particular milieu of Shiraz this study re assesses Hafiz s place in the Persian poetic canon through reading his poems alongside those produced by professional poets in other major centres of Persian literary activity who enjoyed comparable fame in the fourteenth century Recognising the aesthetic achievements of his contemporaries does not diminish the splendour of Hafiz s rather it forces us to accept that Hafiz was but one member of a band of poets who jostled for the limelight in competing often intersecting patronage and reception networks that facilitated intense cultural exchange between the cities of post Mongol Iran and Iraq Hafiz's ghazals characterised as they are by conscious and deliberate hybridity ambiguity and polysemy are products of a creative mind bent on experimenting with genre While in no way seeking to deny the mystical stratum of the Persian ghazal in its fourteenth century manifestation this study emphasises the courtly and profane dimensions of the form and regards Hafiz through a sober lens with keen attention to his dynamic role at the heart of a vibrant poetic community that was at once both fiercely local and boldly cosmopolitan

Nineteenth-Century Iran Arash Khazeni,2011-06-01 Tribes and Empire on the Margins of Nineteenth Century Iran traces the history of the Bakhtiyari tribal confederacy of the Zagros Mountains through momentous times that saw the opening of their territory to the outside world As the Qajar dynasty sought to integrate the peoples on its margins into the state the British Empire made commercial inroads into the once inaccessible mountains on the frontier between Iran and Iraq The distance between the state and the tribes was narrowed through imperial projects that included the building of a road through the mountains the gathering of geographical and ethnographic information and the exploration for oil which culminated during the Iranian Constitutional Revolution These modern projects assimilated autonomous pastoral nomadic tribes on the peripheries of Qajar Iran into a wider imperial territory and the world economy Tribal subjects did not remain passive amidst these changes in environment and society however and projects of empire in the hinterlands of Iran were always mediated through encounters accommodation and engagement with the tribes In contrast to the range of literature on the urban classes and political center in Qajar Iran Arash Khazeni adopts a view from the Bakhtiyari tents on the periphery Drawing upon Persian chronicles tribal histories and archival sources from London Tehran and Isfahan this book opens new ground by approaching nineteenth century Iran from its edge and placing the tribal periphery at the heart of a tale about empire and assimilation in the modern Middle East

The Rise of Critical Islam Youcef L. Soufi, 2023 In a richly narrated historical study Youcef Soufi excavates an Islamic legal culture of critique from the 10th to 13th centuries Focusing on the practice of mun ara disputation Soufi explores how and why oral debates became a pervasive and revered part of the intellectual legal landscape of Iraq and Persia Using the life and career of celebrated Iraqi jurist Ab Is q al Sh r z he traces the formalization of debate gatherings at the dawn of the classical legal schools al madh hib in the early 10th century and analyzes the wider institutional social and discursive conditions that made debate an important feature of any jurist s practice Pushing back against claims that classical Muslim jurists sought to weed out differences of opinion The Rise of Critical Islam presents a community committed to the openness fluidity and continued exploration of the law Challenging the view of debate gatherings simply as mechanisms of doctrinal resolution before codification the study reveals a classical culture where critical debates were part of a continual and personal quest to discover God s law In uncovering this classical legal culture Soufi invites readers to question claims about the promise of secular critique in disciplining religious passions and forging human solidarity

Reading Orientalism Daniel Martin Varisco, 2017-04-11 The late Edward Said remains one of the most influential critics and public intellectuals of our time with lasting contributions to many disciplines Much of his reputation derives from the phenomenal multidisciplinary influence of his 1978 book Orientalism Said s seminal polemic analyzes novels travelogues and academic texts to argue that a dominant discourse of West over East has warped virtually all past European and American representation of the Near East But despite the book s wide acclaim no systematic critical survey of the rhetoric in Said s representation of Orientalism and the resulting impact on intellectual culture has appeared until today Drawing on the extensive discussion of Said s work in more than 600 bibliographic entries Daniel Martin Varisco has written an ambitious intellectual history of the debates that Said s work has sparked in several disciplines highlighting in particular its reception among Arab and European scholars While pointing out Said s tendency to essentialize and privilege certain texts at the expense of those that do not comfortably fit his theoretical framework Varisco analyzes the extensive commentary the book has engendered in Oriental studies literary and cultural studies feminist scholarship history political science and anthropology He employs critical satire to parody the exaggerated and pedantic aspects of post colonial discourse including Said s profound underappreciation of the role of irony and reform in many of the texts he cites The end result is a companion volume to Orientalism and the vast research it inspired Rather than contribute to dueling essentialisms Varisco provides a path to move beyond the binary of East versus West and the polemics of blame Reading Orientalism is the most comprehensive survey of Said s writing and thinking to date It will be of strong interest to scholars of Middle East studies anthropology history cultural studies post colonial studies and literary studies

Women in Mongol Iran Bruno De

Nicola,2017-03-08 This book shows the development of women's status in the Mongol Empire from its original homeland in Mongolia up to the end of the Ilkhanate of Iran in 1335. Taking a thematic approach, the chapters show a coherent progression of this development and contextualise the evolution of the role of women in medieval Mongol society. The arrangement serves as a starting point from where to draw comparison with the status of Mongol women in the later period. Exploring patterns of continuity and transformation in the status of these women in different periods of the Mongol Empire as it expanded westwards into the Islamic world, the book offers a view on the transformation of a nomadic shamanist society from its original homeland in Mongolia to its settlement in the mostly sedentary Muslim Iran in the mid 13th century.
