The Greatest Cult Television Shows of All Time Christopher J. Olson, CarrieLynn D. Reinhard, 2020-05-29 Reaching back to the beginnings of television The Greatest Cult Television Shows offers readers a fun and accessible look at the 100 most significant cult television series of all time compiled in a single resource that includes valuable information on the shows and their creators While they generally lack mainstream appeal cult television shows develop devout followings over time and exert some sort of impact on a given community society culture or even media industry Cult television shows have been around since at least the 1960s with Star Trek perhaps the most famous of that era However the rise of cable contributed to the rise of cult television throughout the 1980s and 1990s and now with the plethora of streaming options available more shows can be added to this categorization Reaching back to the beginnings of television the book includes such groundbreaking series as The Twilight Zone and The Prisoner alongside more contemporary examples like Crazy Ex Girlfriend and Hannibal The authors provide production history for each series and discuss their relevance to global pop culture To provide a more global approach to the topic the authors also consider several non American cult TV series including British Canadian and Japanese shows Thus Monty Python's Flying Circus appears alongside Sailor Moon and Degrassi Junior High Additionally to move beyond the conception of cult as a primarily white heteronormative fanboy obsession the book contains shows that speak to a variety of cult audiences and experiences such as Queer as Folk and Charmed With detailed arguments for why these shows deserve to be considered the greatest of all time Olson and Reinhard provide ideas for discussion and debate on cult television Each entry in this book demonstrates the importance of the 100 shows chosen for inclusion and highlights how they offer insight into the period and the cults that formed around them

New York Magazine, 1989-02-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Beyond Hashtags Sarah Florini, 2019-12-03 How black Americans use digital networks to organize and cultivate solidarity Unrest gripped Ferguson Missouri after Mike Brown an unarmed black teenager was shot and killed by Officer Darren Wilson in August 2014 Many black Americans turned to their digital and social media networks to circulate information cultivate solidarity and organize

during that tumultuous moment While Ferguson and the subsequent protests made black digital networks visible to mainstream media these networks did not coalesce overnight They were built and maintained over years through common everyday use Beyond Hashtags explores these everyday practices and their relationship to larger social issues through an in depth analysis of a trans platform network of black American digital and social media users and content creators In the crucial years leading up to the emergence of the Movement for Black Lives black Americans used digital networks not only to cope with day to day experiences of racism but also as an incubator for the debates that have since exploded onto the national stage Beyond Hashtags tells the story of an influential subsection of these networks an assemblage of podcasting independent media Instagram Vine Facebook and the network of Twitter users that has come to be known as Black Twitter Florini looks at how black Americans use these technologies often simultaneously to create a space to reassert their racial identities forge community organize politically and create alternative media representations and news sources Beyond Hashtags demonstrates how much insight marginalized users have into technology

Electronic Media and Technoculture John Thornton Caldwell, 2000 Never before has the future been so systematically envisioned aggressively analyzed and grandly theorized as in the present rush to cyberspace and digitalization In the mid twentieth century questions about media technologies and society first emerged as scholarly hand wringing about the deleterious sweep of electronic media and information technologies in mass culture Now questions about new technologies and their social and cultural impact are no longer limited to intellectual soothsayers in the academy but are pervasive parts of day to day discourses in newspapers magazines television and film Electronic Media and Technoculture anchors contemporary discussion of the digital future within a critical tradition about the media arts society and culture The collection examines a range of phenomena from boutique cyber practices to the growing ubiquity of e commerce and the internet The essays chart a critical field in media studies providing a historical perspective on theories of new media The contributors place discussions of producing technologies in dialogue with consuming technologies new media in relation to old media and argue that digital media should not be restricted to the constraining public discourses of either the computer broadcast motion picture or internet industries The collection charts a range of theoretical positions to assist readers interested in new media and to enable them to weather the cycles of hardware obsolescence and theoretical volatility that characterize the present rush toward digital technologies Contributors include Ien Ang John Caldwell Cynthia Cockburn Helen Cunningham Hans Magnus Enzensberger Guillermo Gomez Pea Arthur Kroker Bill Nichols Andrew Ross Ellen Seiter Vivian Sobchack Allucqure Rosanne Stone Ravi Sundaram Michael A Weinstein Raymond Williams and Brian Winston John Thornton Caldwell is chair of the film and television department at the University of California at Los Angeles He is a filmmaker and media artist and author of Televisuality Style Crisis and Authority in American Television also from Rutgers University Press
