Johnson, 2017-01-10 designers who are at the start of their career Ethics is at the heart of leadership All leaders assume ethical burdens and must make every effort to make informed ethical decisions and foster ethical behavior among followers The Sixth Edition of Meeting the Ethical Challenges of Leadership Casting Light or Shadow explores the ethical demands of leadership and the dark side of leadership Author Craig E Johnson takes a multidisciplinary approach to leadership ethics drawing from many fields of research to help readers make moral decisions lead in a moral manner and create an ethical culture Packed with real world case studies examples self assessments and applications this fully updated new edition is designed to increase students ethical competence and leadership abilities The School of Sun Tzu David G. Jones, 2012-04-03 In The School of Sun Tzu author David G Jones offers a voyage of discovery into the world of competition and conflict His book presents fresh thought on how issue management without conflict can be applied in today s complex world The School of Sun Tzu carefully examines how the empire of China came into being the leadership of its first emperor and the role played by his learned academies which gave us the Tao Te Ching and the Ping fa by Sun Tzu incorrectly translated as Art of War The concepts values and practices that helped found China defined the greatness of the first empire History knows of but has not articulated the revisionist conspiracy of the second empire that worked so hard to discredit all the good that the first had achieved while leaving it essentially intact Fusing history politics philosophy and motivational theory Jones challenges not only conventional wisdom regarding Sun Tzu and Lao Tzu but even some generally accepted aspects of Chinese history It offers enlightening insights into a methodology as valid today for relationship management as it was centuries ago The Art of Compassionate Business Bruno R. Cignacco, 2019-02-25 There are several well ingrained assumptions regarding the dynamics of work and business activities which can be refuted Some examples of these widespread assumptions in the business and work environments are employees being viewed as commodities competitors perceived as threats companies resources seen as limited and customers perceived as scarce and difficult etc All which leads to the question Is there a way to perform business activities more humanely This book challenges the reader to change the way they perform in business situations and become more focused on the human aspects of business activities The users of this knowledge and those affected by them will undergo a profound transformation in the way they perform business activities They will benefit from gradually testing and implementing the guidelines conveyed in this book both in the business environment and the workplace When readers put these principles into practice positive ripple effects are bound to affect other stakeholders of the organization they work for or own This book includes aspects related to mission and vision passion business mindset organizational learning improvement of business conversations use of constructive criticism and improvement of relationships with the most relevant stakeholders customers suppliers intermediaries community and employees etc The book also includes a discussion of creativity and the innovation process as well as other factors that create a healthy business environment Extensive appendices include topics such as negotiation marketing use of social media and others Ten Traits of Highly Effective Principals Elaine K.
