Sardine Alex Jackson, 2019-06-06 This unique collection of recipes encapsulates the beauty and simplicity of Provençal French cooking. Taking influence from Italy as well as North Africa, acclaimed chef Alex Jackson's recipes are truly delightful. Organised by season, at the end of each chapter Alex includes a Grande Bouffe, a set menu for a feast. The certain satisfaction in cooking a set menu in a restaurant translates wonderfully to the home cook who seeks to escape with our chef and to create their own bonne fête. It opens up many options: large-format dishes, whole fish and joints of meat, more complicated processes, economies of scale, and above all, a feeling somehow that this is the way that eating is supposed to be. It's also an exercise in composition, a challenge to ensure that the menu reads beautifully, flows right, and eats even better, as well as an opportunity to shoehorn all the best ingredients of the moment into one evening's cooking. Alex has included a selection of recipes for each season: from Bouillabaisse and Autumnal Grand Aoli to Aligot, Gant, and an Easter feast. Most of these menus revolve around a central celebratory dish, and so the joy for the home cook is in the knowledge that their evening will be no less a success and certainly much less work if they cut a course here or there. With recipes running in seasonal order, Sardine promises to reignite a love affair with French provincial cooking, its multitude of influences, and its focus on seasonal eating and ultimately an attitude to food which centres around sharing and
