SAGE Internet Research Methods Jason Hughes, 2012-06-25 Historically social researchers have shown a willingness to exploit new technologies to enhance facilitate and support their various activities However arguably no other technological development has influenced the landscape of social research as rapidly and fundamentally as the Internet This collection avoids both uncritical embrace and wholesale dismissal by considering some of the key literature in the field of Internet research methods Volume One Core Issues Debates and Controversies in Internet Research introduces themes and issues that run across all four volumes such as epistemology ontology and methodology in the online world access social divisions and the digital divide and the ethics of online research Volume Two Taking Research Online Internet Survey and Sampling addresses the range of resources digital archives and Internet based data sources that exist online from relatively straightforward and practical guides to such material through to more polemical pieces which consider problems relating to the use access and analysis of online data and resources Volume Three Taking Research Online Qualitative Approaches considers the broad range of approaches to conducting researching via or in the Internet The focus is on conventional methods that have been taken online and which in doing so have become transformed in scope and character Volume Four Research On and In the Internet Investigating the Online World follows logically from that which precedes it in exploring how social research has been taken online not simply through the deployment of existing methods and techniques via the Internet but in researchers increasing recognition and investigation of the online world as a sphere of human interaction a socio cultural arena to be explored from the desktop as it were

Researching Memory and Identity in Russia and Eastern Europe Jade McGlynn, Oliver T. Jones, 2022-10-06 This book offers a collection of innovative methodological approaches to Memory Studies in Russia and Eastern Europe Providing insights into the relationship between memory and identity the twelve chapters provide multidisciplinary analysis of how history is used to reinforce remould and reinvent national and group identities This analysis includes a strong emphasis on interrogating the role of the researcher and the impact of methodology exploring the field's most pressing challenges such as the subjectivity of remembrance reception versus production of discourse and the inclusion of marginal perspectives By focussing on countries in which the past is highly politicised including Serbia Ukraine Poland Russia and the Baltic States the volume also analyses the diverse and often conflicting ways in which historical narratives emerge from these states efforts to create new pasts that shape their respective visions of the future with pressing ramifications across this region and beyond

Being Available and Reachable Primus Mbeanwoah Tazanu, 2012 The book investigates what have become of Cameroonian transnational family and friendship ties in the age of the mobile phone and the internet that make people readily available and reachable Most theoretical literature states that these tools of sociality cement transnational social relationships through instantaneous interaction To capture the different experiences and impressions on the significance of these media in easing communication for migrants and non migrants Tazanu draws on ethnographic accounts based on his fieldwork in Freiburg Germany and Buea Cameroon He argues that it is mainly the migrants who maintain or are expected to maintain ties with non migrants back in Cameroon through calls and material support The main finding of the study is that cell phones and the internet have facilitated discontents grudges insults fights avoidance arguments and estrangement of relationships much more than they have contributed to binding friends or families through direct mediation Underlying these aspects of distancing are the high expectations and sometimes contradictory motives for instant virtual interaction Non migrants accounts suggest that direct availability and reachability should lead to uninterrupted transnational interaction and also that the cultural practices of remittances from migrants are easily requested and coordinated Such motives are generally contrary to migrants wishes willingness or ability to support friends and families in Cameroon These unexpected outcomes arising from rapid speed of interaction questions the advantages that are often associated with instant sociality across space and time The finding is a call for the cultural background and life world experiences of media users to be taken into consideration when theorising the significance of information technology in the debate on media globalisation

The Routledge Companion to Digital Ethnography Larissa Hjorth, Heather Horst, Anne Galloway, Genevieve Bell, 2017-01-20 With the increase of digital and networked media in everyday life researchers have increasingly turned their gaze to the symbolic and cultural elements of technologies From studying online game communities locative and social media to YouTube and mobile media ethnographic approaches to digital and networked media have helped to elucidate the dynamic cultural and social dimensions of media practice The Routledge Companion to Digital Ethnography provides an authoritative up to date intellectually broad and conceptually cutting edge guide to this emergent and diverse area Features include a comprehensive history of computers and digitization in anthropology exploration of various ethnographic methods in the context of digital tools and network relations consideration of social networking and communication technologies on a local and global scale in depth analyses of different interfaces in ethnography from mobile technologies to digital archives
