Resolutions Contemporary Video Practices:

Resolutions Michael Renov, Erika Suderburg, 1996 Resolutions provides by far the best boldest and most thorough account to date of video art and activism practice and theory. The long awaited follow up to a project conducted by Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibitions LACE this volume presents original articles by many of the most interesting video artists filmmakers and critical theorists writing today. Their subjects from video pedagogy to emerging technologies are many and varied and together constitute a clear and complete picture of the state of the medium. Constructed like an inquiry into newly forming video practice the collection at once interweaves and questions a series of relationships among politics popular culture artistic intervention and social practices. The often provocative essays on topics ranging from video porn to Geraldo Rivera to lesbian representation to the politics of video memory contribute significantly to a much needed reconceptualization of the electronic medium. Resolutions Michael Renov, Erika Suderburg, 1996 Resolutions provides by far the best boldest and most thorough account to date of video art and activism practice and theory. The transformations of Brazilian society and of filmmaking coalesce and become entangled in this cinema's preoccupation with archives. Historically linked to the exercise and maintenance of power the concept of the archive is critical for the documentary as a cultural practice that preserves images from the present for the future unearths and repurposes visual materials from the past and is historically invested in filmic images as records of the real. Contemporary films incorporate reflect on and rework a variety of archives such as documents produced by official institutions ethnographic images home movies and photo albums and engage not only with what is preserved but also with lacunas in the record and with alternate forms of remembering retrieving and transmitting the past. Through its interaction with archives this book argues the contemporary documentary reflects on and intervenes in the distribution of visibilities and invisibilities centers and margins silences and speech living memory and its preservation in the record thus locating the documentary on archival borders that concern Brazilian society and filmmaking alike
