

Two things are required to be a responsible Christian according to Protestant theologian Karl Barth.

- To read the newspapers and to read the Sacred Scriptures daily
- One has to read the newspapers to know the situation of the world and of the country.
- One has to read the Bible to interpret that situation – the signs of the times – according to faith.

Responsible Christian A Protestant Inter:

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Catholic Emancipation and Protestant Responsibility Daniel Wilson, 1829 The

Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2020-06-08 This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims practice and historical context of interfaith collaboration Explores in full the background history objectives and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions Examines relations between religions from around the world moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue Charts a long term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches Includes up to date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse Protestant Clergy Sexual Misconduct and Intercultural Pastoral Care

A Hyun Lee, 2025-08-04 This volume examines the often overlooked crisis of sexual misconduct within Korean Protestant churches exploring how militarized culture hierarchical power and institutional silence contribute to the abuse of congregants especially those in vulnerable situations Through a blend of sociocultural theological and psychological analysis the book goes beyond individual acts of transgression to reveal the systemic forces that perpetuate clergy sexual misconduct By investigating the historical cultural and spiritual dimensions of abuse the book offers a framework for reframing survivor centered care and rethinking pastoral theology It concludes with a call for transformative change in religious practice urging greater transparency and more compassionate faith communities Essential reading for scholars students and practitioners

this book provides critical insights into addressing sexual abuse within church settings and fostering ethical ministry

Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue

"Without Ceasing to be a Christian" Mark Granquist, 2017-12-01 Since his death in 2010 there has been continuing and growing interest in the life vision and thought of the late Spanish Indian mystical theologian Raimon Panikkar As well as offering both a personal affirmation and critique of Panikkar's thought from a Catholic and Protestant perspective the work compares and contrasts him with a range of Western and Indian theologians both Catholic and Protestant and outlines the possibilities of learning from Panikkar in an ecumenical context

The Calling of Global Responsibility Ananta Kumar Giri, 2023-03-03 This book rethinks and transforms the current discourse on globalization and global justice It expands the idea of globalization from an economic or corporate context to mean humanization and planetary realizations moving beyond the boundaries of nation states and other human made demarcations The author challenges the notion of human primacy and makes a fervent call to reconfigure the paradigm of anthropocentrism Through a careful study of movements for justice and inter faith dialogue from across the world the book makes a unique contribution to the emerging study of global responsibility It also helps us overcome our current civilizational crises and cultivate a new civilization of planetary care and co responsibility As part of the Ethics Human Rights and Global Political Thought series the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of law and society especially social movements political theory and philosophy

American Protestants and TV in the 1950s M. Rosenthal, 2007-10-01 Americans in the 1950s faced the challenge of negotiating the new medium's place in the home and in American culture in general Using the American Protestant experience of the introduction of television Rosenthal illustrates the importance of the interplay between a new medium and its users

The Fervent Embrace Caitlin Carenen, 2012-03-26 When Israel declared its independence in 1948 Harry Truman issued a memo recognizing the Israeli government within eleven minutes Today the U S and Israel continue on as partners in an at times controversial alliance an alliance many argue that is powerfully influenced by the Christian Right In The Fervent Embrace Caitlin Carenen chronicles the American Christian relationship with Israel tracing first mainline Protestant and then evangelical support for

Zionism In the aftermath of the Holocaust American liberal Protestants argued that America had a moral humanitarian duty to support Israel Christian anti-Semitism had helped bring about the Holocaust they declared and so Christians must help make amends Moreover a stable and democratic Israel would no doubt make the Middle East a safer place for future American interests Carenen argues that it was this mainline Protestant position that laid the foundation for the current evangelical Protestant support for Israel which is based primarily on theological grounds Drawing on previously unexplored archival material from the Central Zionist Archives in Israel this volume tells the full story of the American Christian Israel relationship bringing the various players American liberal Protestants American Evangelicals American Jews and Israelis together into one historical narrative
