Gary T. Reker, Kerry Chamberlain

Restorying Our Lives Personal Growth Through Autobiographical Reflection:

Restorying Our Lives William L. Randall, Gary M. Kenyon, 1997-06-16 With a comprehensive bibliography on the narrative approach in the human sciences plus numerous examples that illustrate the enticing theoretical perspective at the book's core this work constitutes a valuable resource for anyone curious about the dynamics of continuity and change or restorying in both their own and others' lives It appeals to a broad range of readers from social workers to gerontologists from psychotherapists to memory theorists from spiritual directors to health care providers and from professional philosophers to individuals involved in self exploration

Restorying Our Lives Gary M. Kenyon, William Lowell Randall, 1997 A blend of practical insight and academic analysis concerning composing or storying our lives With a bibliography on the narrative approach in the human sciences and examples this work should be a useful resource for anyone curious about the dynamics of continuity and change

The Stories We Are William Lowell Randall, 2014-01-01 William Lowell Randall explores the links between literature and life and speculates on the range of storytelling styles through which people compose their lives In doing so he draws on a variety of fields including psychology psychotherapy theology philosophy feminist theory and literary theory

Researching the Lifecourse Nancy Worth, Irene Hardill, 2015-06-30 The lifecourse perspective continues to be an important subject in the social sciences Researching the Lifecourse offers a distinctive approach in that it truly covers the lifecourse childhood adulthood and older age focusing on innovative methods and case study examples from a variety of European and North American contexts This original approach connects theory and practice from across the social sciences by situating methodology and research design within relevant conceptual frameworks This diverse collection features methods that are linked to questions of time space and mobilities while providing practitioners with practical detail in each chapter

Narratives of Individuation Raya A. Jones, Leslie Gardner, 2019-04-15 In Narratives of Individuation Raya A Jones and Leslie Gardner present 12 cutting edge essays that bridge Jungian and narrative approaches to self understanding and offer critical appraisal of both approaches Exploring the Jungian concept of individuation and the related interest in dreams as well as the premise of the narrative self and the related interest in life stories this innovative volume interprets the topic in unique and unprecedented ways An outstanding selection of contributors cover several overarching themes to provide a comprehensive understanding of these two powerful narratives The contributors explore historical and conceptual issues concerning the narrative self as well as applying it including to Jung's autobiography Chapters also examine how Jung developed his theory of individuation and engage with contemporary thinking in anthropology psychology including the dialogical self and Jungian psychotherapy towards refiguring how people arrive at self understanding Written by leaders in the field Narratives of Individuation is a valuable interdisciplinary resource that illuminates a multitude of perspectives on individuation and self realisation Owing to its original ideas and breadth of scope Narratives of Individuation will appeal to academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies anthropology psychology literary studies and anyone examining concepts of selfhood and the significance of narrativity It will also be of great interest to Jungian analysts and psychotherapists and analytical psychologists Mastery in Coaching Jonathan Passmore,2014-09-03 The reasons that coaching works so well and can produce such dramatic results are grounded in psychology so it follows that some of the most powerful coaching methods available draw on psychological thinking Published with the Association for Coaching Mastery in Coaching presents the latest thinking on the most effective techniques coaches can use with their clients Every chapter is written by a leading expert in the field and takes a rigorous evidence based approach which will give you a practical understanding of each method supported with examples and underpinned by the theory of the key psychological concepts in coaching Ranging from cognitive behavioural coaching gestalt and positive psychology to neuroscience and mindfulness this indispensable book will give any serious coach the tools they need to get the best from their clients The Coaches' Handbook Jonathan Passmore,2020-10-13 This comprehensive practitioner guide provides an accessible evidenced based approach aimed at those new to coaching and who may be undertaking coach training for a certificate in coaching or professional credentials or accreditation with the AC ICF EMCC CMI or ILM The book will also be useful for those who want to enhance their coaching skills The Coaches Handbook is edited by Jonathan Passmore an internationally respected expert and executive coach with chapters from leading coaching practitioners from across the world The book is divided into seven sections Section one examines the nature of coaching its boundaries the business case for coaching and how organisations can build a coaching culture Section two focuses on deepening our self understanding and understanding our clients the non violent communications mindset and the coaching relationship Section three focuses on the key skills needed for coaching including goal setting powerful questions active listening using direct communications and the role of silence emotions and challenge in coaching Section four offers a range of coaching approaches including behavioural person centred solution focused psychodynamic neuroscience narrative positive psychology out door eco coaching team coaching careers coaching and integrated coaching Section five focuses on fundamental issues in coaching such as ethics and contracting and evaluation Section six explores continuous professional development reflection and the role of supervision as well as how to establish your coaching business The final section contains a host of coaching tools which practitioners can use to broaden their practice Unique in its scope this key text will be essential reading for coaches academics and students of coaching It is an important text for anyone seeking to understand the best practice approaches that can be applied to their coaching practice including human resources learning and development and management professionals and executives in a coaching role Exploring Existential Meaning Gary T. Reker,Kerry Chamberlain,2000 Both implicit and existential meaning are important constructs in fully understanding human experience The editors of this volume present a forum for an array of viewpoints and recent research that address the notion of optimal human growth Life and Narrative Brian Schiff,A. Elizabeth McKim,Sylvie Patron,2017-01-17 The challenge of life and literary narrative is the central and perennial mystery of how people encounter, manage and inhabit a self and a world of their own and others' creations. With a nod to the eminent scholar and psychologist Jerome Bruner, Life and Narrative: The Risks and Responsibilities of Storying Experience explores the circulation of meaning between experience and the recounting of that experience to others. A variety of arguments center around the kind of relationship life and narrative share with one another. In this volume, rather than choosing to argue that this relationship is either continuous or discontinuous, editors Brian Schiff, Elizabeth McKim, and Sylvie Patron, and their contributing authors, reject the simple binary and masterfully incorporate a more nuanced approach that has more descriptive appeal and theoretical traction for readers. Exploring such diverse and fascinating topics as Narrative and the Law, Narrative Fiction, the Short Story, and Life, The Body as Biography, and The Politics of Memory, Life and Narrative features important research and perspectives from both up and coming researchers and prominent scholars in the field, many of which are widely acknowledged for moving the needle forward on the study of narrative in their respective disciplines and beyond.

The Complete Handbook of Coaching
Elaine Cox, Tatiana Bachkirova, David Clutterbuck, 2023-10-01

This fourth edition provides the most comprehensive guide to the field of coaching, exploring a range of coaching theories and approaches, genres and settings, and professional issues. It supports trainees and professionals to identify and develop a personal style of coaching. Each chapter includes discussion questions to facilitate reflection on the topic, further reading suggestions, and case studies that help trainees make the crucial link between theory and practice. Its three parts cover the theoretical traditions underpinning coaching, such as cognitive behavioural, gestalt, and existential; contexts and genres, such as life, executive, peer, team, and career coaching; professional issues, such as ethics, supervision, continuing professional development, standards, and mental health issues. This Fourth Edition comes with a new chapter on Diversity and Inclusion in Coaching, updated content throughout on cross-cultural coaching, and updated Further Reading. A new online Teaching Guide provides chapter teaching and assessment suggestions, videos, and further reading to help support trainees' learning. Thousands of practitioners and trainees across a variety of professions have been helped by this distinctive handbook. From those working in health to education, from business and management to psychology, this unique handbook is an invaluable resource for any coaching career.
