Retables Lage Gothique Et La Renaibance:

Retables Caterina Limentani Viridis, Mari Pietrogiovanna, 2001 Cet ouvrage traite de la production européenne de retables et de polyptiques de la fin de l'âge gothique à la Renaissance reflétant ainsi l'un des modes d'expression artistique favoris de cette époque. Mis en évidence sur l'autel majeur au centre de l'église, le retable constitue un facteur essentiel de l'espace religieux en tant qu'objet privilégié du culte. Formes Du Salut Emmanuelle Mercier, Erika Rabelo, Matthieu Somon, 2020-05-27 Formes du salut invites you to privately discover seven sculptures and a painted panel from the Val Duchesse Abbey. These works are part of abbot Mignot's collection; they were bequeathed to the Royal Trust and were deposited at the Musée de la Vieillesse. Via this book, the Museum wishes to highlight the conservation/restoration work carried out at the Institut royal du patrimoine artistique IRPA, thanks to the Baillet-Latour Fund, apart from its practical use, which guarantees the preservation, durability, and transmission of this heritage for future generations. This intervention has made it possible to document the uses and history of the sculptures, often reworked according to the circumstances of their exhibition. Therefore, the share of these works in religious life and more precisely their role in the search for salvation by Christians lies also at the heart of this book. Emmanuelle Mercier (IRPA), Erika Rabelo (IRPA) and Matthieu Somon (UCLouvain) have created a kind of religious art pragmatics and they reconstruct the inscription of the works in the religious life of the medieval period. The interactions were much livelier than their current presentation might lead one to believe. Touching the Passion — Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith Donna L. Sadler, 2018-03-06 In Touching the Passion: Seeing Late Medieval Altarpieces through the Eyes of Faith, Donna Sadler explores the manner in which worshipers responded to the carved and polychromed retables adorning the altars of their parish churches. Framed by the symbolic death of Christ re-enacted during the Mass, the historical account of the Passion on the retable situated Christ's suffering and triumph over death in the present. The dramatic gestures, contemporary garb, and wealth of anecdotal detail on the altarpiece invited the viewer's absorption in the narrative. As in the Imitatio Christi, the worshiper imaginatively projected himself into the story like a child before a dollhouse. The five senses of the sculptural medium, the small scale, and the rhetoric of memory foster this immersion. The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century. Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries, it offers students, researchers, and the general public a reliable up-to-date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture. Religio, religare, Epitomes of Evil Hannele Klemettilä, 2006 Hangmen were familiar characters from urban reality to people living in France and the Burgundian Netherlands in the late Middle Ages. These officers played an essential role in the new penal system. However, general attitudes towards public executioners were highly ambiguous, often hostile and disparaging. In past imagery various hangman figures real or fictitious were closely linked to ideas of otherness cruelty sin and evil They were identified with criminals marginal people and demons In the period of the late Middle Ages the hangman s representations were actively exploited shaped and modified for various reasons by different social and cultural groups in different products of culture religious as well as secular This study casts light on ways of perceiving the executioner in French and Burgundian culture and society from the fourteenth to the early sixteenth century The primary sources used in this work consist of wide and varied printed and non printed textual materials such as chronicles writings by legal experts and theologians drama and poetry Significant role is also given to the testimony offered by pictorial art both sacred and profane especially miniatures and panel paintings Art & métiers du livre ,2003 Folles pensées M.-J.
