Rethinking Architecture A Reader In Cultural Theory:

Rethinking Architecture Neil Leach, 2005-12-20 Brought together for the first time the seminal writing on architecture by key philosophers and cultural theorist of the twentieth century Issues around the built environment are increasingly central to the study of the social sciences and humanities The essays offer a refreshing take on the question of architecture and provocatively rethink many of the accepted tenets of architecture theory from a broader cultural perspective The book represents a careful selection of the very best theoretical writings on the ideas which have shaped our cities and our experiences of architecture As such Rethinking Architecture provides invaluable core source material for students on a range of courses

Rethinking Architecture Neil Leach, 2004 Rethinking Architecture Leach, 2009-05-15 The Derrida Reader Jacques Derrida, 1998-01-01 In the English speaking world Jacques Derrida's writings have most influenced the discipline of literary studies Yet what has emerged since the initial phase of Derrida's influence on the study of English literature classed under the rubric of deconstruction has often been disowned by Derrida What then can Derrida teach us about literary language about the rhetoric of literature and about questions concerning style form and structure The Derrida Reader draws together a number of Derrida's most interesting and idiosyncratic essays that treat literary language the idea of the literary and questions of poetics and poetry The essays discuss single tropes or concepts a figure such as metaphor the ideas of titles and signatures proper names and Derrida's thinking on such subjects as undecidability or aporia The editor's introduction is a demonstration in practice of how Derrida reads and how he adapts the act of reading to the text or figure in question The introduction also outlines each essay's main points its usefulness for reading literary texts and its particular area of interest The Derrida Reader thus provides students of literature with a focused contextualized and readily understandable volume

Architecture & Feminist Critical Theory Hilde Heynen, 2025-11-26 Hilde Heynen is a Belgian architectural theorist whose work bridges neo Marxist critical theory and current feminist discourse applying these perspectives to architectural culture This volume collects her most significant texts from three decades of intellectual work centred on three feature concepts mimesis dwelling and displacement It offers readers incisive reflections on architects roles in shaping societies and the alliance between ideology societal structures of injustice political economy housing and the built environment Within a fierce post critical debate among scholars who have begun to question the relevance of architectural theory to the discipline in the early twenty first century Heynen's position remains constant throughout her writings in defence of architectural theory as a social and transformative practice This collection is essential reading for new generations of architects and cultural theorists interested in modernity gender and criticality
