insights into the work of Ruth Praver Jhabvala that has gone unnoticed in India and other prominent Indian English writers as E M Forster Salman Rushdie Shashi Tharoor Ananth Murthi Arundhati Roy and other Indian English writers The reviews which appeared in World Literature Today Times of India Quest Youth Times and other prestigious journals and papers present a panoramic view of the emerging Indian English literature Short and pithy they are suffused with sharp critical comments Bypassing such pot holes as post colonialism post structuralism post modernism the book takes you straight to the heart of the literary work under discussion and makes you understand its worth its intricacies its beauty and its achievements In a way it marks a new beginning in literary criticism Transcultural English Studies Frank

Schulze-Engler, Sissy Helff, 2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies
