Submerged: How a Cold Case Condemned an Innocent Man to Hide a Family's Darkest Secret Hillel Levin,2024-11-19 This bombshell investigation from the co author of Black Bird reveals a cold case gone wrong that cleared a murderer and imprisoned an innocent man In March 1993 sixteen year old Rayna Rison was abducted outside the La Porte Indiana veterinary hospital where she worked A month later her body was found submerged under tree limbs in a rural pond Police targeted her brother in law Ray McCarty as the prime suspect Although a grand jury indicted him for the murder in 1998 prosecutors later dropped the charges Then in 2013 county officers arrested Jason Tibbs Rayna s middle school boyfriend convicted him and sentenced him to forty years in prison After a two year investigation drawing on dozens of interviews and more than a thousand pages of police files author Hillel Levin completes the case against McCarty following clues and leads that detectives overlooked In the process he reveals startling new information about the killer s murder weapon and accomplices and uncovers the politics and misconduct that enabled the prosecutor to convict Jason Tibbs Although cold cases are celebrated in popular culture Jason s trial shows the perils they can pose for innocent defendants At the heart of Submerged is the tragic story of Rayna Rison an exceptional young woman with a promising future whose family and justice system failed to keep her from harm Ironically the person now held accountable for her murder is the friend she most saw as her protector

Quartet for the End of Time Johanna Skibsrud,2025-04-25 A cinematic page turner and a compassionate analysis of faith memory responsibility and consequence Molly Antopol Fiction Writers Review Inspired by and structured around the chamber piece of the same title by the French composer Olivier Messiaen Quartet for the End of Time is a mesmerizing story of four lives irrevocably linked in a single act of betrayal The novel takes us on an unforgettable journey beginning during the 1930s Bonus Army riots when World War I veteran Arthur Sinclair is falsely accused of conspiracy and then disappears His absence will haunt his son Douglas as well as Alden and Sutton Kelly the children of a powerful U S congressman as they experience each in different ways the dynamic political social changes that took place leading up to and during World War II From the New Deal projects through which Douglas newly fatherless makes his living to Sutton s work as a journalist to Alden s life as a code breaker and a spy each character is haunted by the past and is searching for love hope and redemption in a world torn apart by chaos and war Through the lives of these characters as well as those of their lovers friends and enemies the novel transports us from the Siberian Expedition of World War I to the underground world of a Soviet spy in the 1920s and 1930s to the occultist circle of P D Ouspensky and London during the Blitz to the German prison camp where Messiaen originally composed and performed his famous Quartet for the End of Time At every turn this rich and ambitious novel tells some of the less well known stories of twentieth century history with epic scope and astonishing power revealing at every turn the ways in which history and memory tend to follow us and in which absence has a palpable presence

Second Robin and its first part Death of a Robin are evidence of this fact because these are true stories The events in the novels began in 1984 in a real place called Constantia somewhere in India which engulfed the lives of real people He retreated into the shade of the prehistoric imli trees Time lingered longer on their bark and in their secret hollows day disappeared and changed into the costumes of dusk Dewy traps of moonlight dripped into the misty eyes of the creatures of darkness and washed away the indolent dirt of the day from their brows and they played out games of the decoy perils of nights many webs He took a tour of the long coast of the night and sat down beside the river And interpreted each eyeful jewel of the deep sky Report of the Secretary of the Senate from ... United States.
