Moving Into History Therapy For The American Identity:

Moving Into History John M. Vore, 2003-01-01 Before he knew he was gay before he would be abused by a priest John Vore thought of himself first and foremost as an American In essays written since 9 11 Vore challenges progressives liberals and would be victims to think differently fractured into broken selves with patchwork identities we can barely see ourselves as Americans anymore Our blindness has allowed conservatives to grab the stage of history With our very individuality broken into psychological factions how can we challenge them In remembering our capacity as Americans Vore shows how we can come together again With values rooted in spirituality and an ideology free look at our lives he delivers an open invitation to us all a road map back to the center of America Asian American Identities, Relationships, and Post-Migration Legacies Jessica ChenFeng, Lana Kim, 2024-10-04 Bringing together the personal and professional narratives of Asian American family therapists this book offers insight into the Asian American experience through systemic theory and frameworks individual and community stories and clinical considerations The Asian American experience is still a largely invisible and unknown one especially in the field of marriage and family therapy With a contextual lens this book highlights how understanding family migration legacies and individual generational status relative to time place and context is critical to doing meaningful work with Asian Americans Filled with thought provoking case studies and reflective questions chapters discuss the impact of stereotyping on mental health the historical and present ways that Asian American racialization invisibilizes individual and collective experiences shame associated with bicultural identity gender generational trauma media representations and more Each chapter bridges these ideas to clinical practice while concurrently centering the voices and experiences of Asian American therapists This book is essential reading for marriage and family therapists and other mental health clinicians who want to deepen their understanding of relationship with and clinical support for the Asian Americans in their lives whether friends colleagues supervisees or clients American Literature and American Identity Patrick Colm Hogan, 2021-11-10 In recent years cognitive and affective science have become increasingly important for interpretation and explanation in the social sciences and humanities However little of this work has addressed American literature and virtually none has treated national identity formation in influential works since the Civil War In this book Hogan develops his earlier cognitive and affective analyses of national identity further exploring the ways in which such identity is integrated with cross culturally recurring patterns in story structure Hogan examines how authors imagined American identity understood as universal democratic egalitarianism in the face of the nation s clear and often brutal inequalities of race sex and sexuality exploring the complex and often ambivalent treatment of American identity in works by Charlotte Perkins Gilman Eugene O Neill Lillian Hellman Djuna Barnes Amiri Baraka Margaret Atwood N Scott Momaday Spike Lee Leslie Marmon Silko Tony Kushner and Heidi Schreck Jewish-American Identity and Critical Intercultural Communication Miriam Shoshana Sobre, 2022-11-08 Jewish American Identity and Critical Intercultural Communication

Never Forget Tikkun Olam and Kindness to Strangers explores what it means to be Jewish on a personal sociocultural and global political level This book employs 50 interviews with diverse Jewish voices to provide a history of Jewish migration to the US and to privilege voices that are not necessarily White and Eastern European Ashkenazic Sobr argues for a more inclusive form of intercultural theorizing that favors intersectionality and allyship over oppression Olympics stereotypes between members of different nondominant groups and colorism within nondominant group discrimination Such siloing of differences and further competing about whose differences are the most egregious minimizes critical intercultural coalition opportunities allowing for such groups as those who gave power to Trump and Netanyahu to connect while inclusive progressives engage in fighting and separatism The author calls for transversal dialogic politics racially and historically accurate school curriculum intersectionality and more inclusive intercultural communication scholarship and practice as various means of working together against white nationalism and white supremacy in the US and the world Scholars of religious studies cultural anthropology and intercultural communication will find this book of particular interest

Moving History/Dancing Cultures Ann Dils,Ann Cooper Albright,2013-06-01 This new collection of essays surveys the history of dance in an innovative and wide ranging fashion Editors Dils and Albright address the current dearth of comprehensive teaching material in the dance history field through the creation of a multifaceted non linear yet well structured and comprehensive survey of select moments in the development of both American and World dance This book is illustrated with over 50 photographs and would make an ideal text for undergraduate classes in dance ethnography criticism or appreciation as well as dance history particularly those with a cross cultural contemporary or an American focus The reader is organized into four thematic sections which allow for varied and individualized course use Thinking about Dance History Theories and Practices World Dance Traditions America Dancing and Contemporary Dance Global Contexts The editors have structured the readings with the understanding that contemporary theory has thoroughly questioned the discursive construction of history and the resultant canonization of certain dances texts and points of view The historical readings are presented in a way that encourages thoughtful analysis and allows the opportunity for critical engagement with the text Ebook Edition Note Ebook edition note Five essays have been redacted including The Belly Dance Ancient Ritual to Cabaret Performance by Shawna Helland Epitome of Korean Folk Dance by Lee Kyong Hee Juba and American Minstrelsy by Marian Hannah Winter The Natural Body by Ann Daly and Butoh Twenty Years Ago We Were Crazy Dirty and Mad by Bonnie Sue Stein Eleven of the 41 illustrations in the book have also been redacted
