New Mozart Documents Cliff Eisen, 1991-10-23 O E Deutsch's documentary biography of Mozart first published in German in 1961 and translated into English in 1965 presented all the contemporary documentation on Mozart then known to scholars During three decades of research more have come to light and Dr Eisen himself has substantially augmented their number with a methodical search through contemporary research material newspapers diaries memoirs books and many others This new edition presents all the material discovered since the English edition of the Deutsch volume with full description and documentation This book is essential reading for anyone concerned with the basic information on Mozart's life his activities and the reception of his music

Haydn, Mozart, and the Viennese School, 1740-1780 Daniel Heartz, 1995 Historians have long tried to place the music of Haydn and Mozart in the lineage of German Lutheran music In this book Daniel Heartz shows that the first Viennese school grew from a Catholic inheritance in Italian music and from local tradition with an admixture of French currents The generation of composers led by Haydn no longer trained in Italy By the time young Mozart joined the ranks of the Viennese school its accomplishments towered above all others of the time The author's approach can be compared to viewing a majestic mountain range in its totality the highest peaks take on even greater majesty when seen in their natural context of foothills and lesser peaks This is how Haydn and Mozart were viewed by their contemporaries whose world of perception Heartz recreates using among other things the visual art of the period His focus is on music as a part of cultural history at a particular time and place Stylistic terms and a priori periods matter less to him than the common denominators of geography culture and political history
