Price Guide to Old Books Marie Tedford, 1997 Snee Reinhardt Charitable Foundations REF Making Sense of Social Research Methodology Pengfei Zhao, Karen Ross, Peiwei Li, Barbara Dennis, 2021-01-04 Making Sense of Social Research Methodology A Student and Practitioner Centered Approach introduces students to research methods by illuminating the underlying assumptions of social science inquiry Authors Pengfei Zhao Karen Ross Peiwei Li and Barbara Dennis show how research concepts are often an integral part of everyday life through illustrative common scenarios like looking for a recipe or going on a job interview The authors extrapolate from these personal but ubiquitous experiences to further explain concepts like gathering data or social context so students develop a deeper understanding of research and its applications outside of the classroom Students from across the social sciences can take this new understanding into their own research their professional lives and their personal lives with a new sense of relevancy and urgency This text is organized into clusters that center on major topics in social science research The first cluster introduces concepts that are fundamental to all aspects and steps of the research process These concepts include relationality identity ethics epistemology validity and the sociopolitical context within which research occurs The second and third clusters focus on data and inference These clusters engage concretely with steps of the research process including decisions about designing research generating data making inferences Throughout the chapters Pause and Reflect open ended questions provide readers with the space for further inquiry into research concepts and how they apply to life Research Scenario features in each chapter offer new perspectives on major research topics from leading and emerging voices in methods Moving from this dialogic perspective to more actionable advice You and Research features offer students concrete steps for engaging with research Take your research into the world with Making Sense of Social Research Methodology A Student and Practitioner Centered Approach AB Bookman's Weekly, 1999 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence We Are Not Users Eswaran Subrahmanian, Yoram Reich, Sruthi Krishnan, 2024-10-29 A call to reclaim and rethink the field of designing as a liberal art where diverse voices come together to shape the material world We live in a material world of designed artifacts both digital and analog We think of ourselves as users the platforms devices or objects provide a service that we can use But is this really the case We Are Not Users argues that people cannot be reduced to the entity called user we are not homogenous but diverse That buzz of dissonance that we hear reflects the difficulty of condensing our diversity into one size fits all This book proposes that a new understanding of design could resolve that dissonance and issues a call to reclaim and rethink the field of designing as a liberal art where diverse voices come together to shape the material world The authors envision designing as a dialogue simultaneously about the individual and the social an act enriched by diversity of both disciplines and perspectives The book presents the building blocks of a language that can conceive designing in all its richness with relevance for both theory and practice It introduces a theoretical model terminology examples and a framework for bringing together the social cultural and political aspects of designing It will be essential reading for design theorists and for designers in areas ranging from architecture to software design and policymaking

God 99 Hassan Blasim, 2020-11-26 Chess playing people traffickers suicidal photographers absurdist sound sculptors cat loving rebel sympathisers murderous storytellers The characters in Hassan Blasim's debut novel are not the inventions of a wild imagination but real life refugees and people whose lives have been devastated by war Interviewed by Hassan Owl an aspiring Iraq born writer they become the subjects of an online art project a blog that blurs the boundaries between fiction and autobiography reportage and the novel Framed by an email correspondence with the mysterious Alia a translator of the Romanian philosopher Emil Cioran the project leads us through the bars brothels and bathhouses of Hassan's past and present in a journey of trauma violence identity and desire Taking its conceit from the Islamic tradition that says God has 99 names the novel trains a kaleidoscopic lens on the multiplicity of experiences behind Europe's so called migrant crisis and asks how those who have been displaced might find themselves again God 99 is the highly anticipated debut novel by award winning Iraqi writer poet and filmmaker Hassan Blasim Winner of an English PEN Translates Award

Beyond the People Zoran Oklopcic, 2018-05-31 Beyond the People develops a provocative interdisciplinary and meta theoretical critique of the idea of popular sovereignty It asks simple but far reaching questions Can imagined communities or invented peoples ever be theorized without at the same time being re imagined and re invented anew Can polemical concepts such as popular sovereignty or constituent power be theorized objectively If as this book argues the answer to these questions is no theorists who approach the figure of a sovereign people must acknowledge that their activity is inseparable from the practice of constituent imagination Though widely accepted as important even vital for the development of political concepts the social practice of imagination is almost always presumed to operate either historically or impersonally but seldom individually Those who theorize the figures of popular sovereignty do not see that they are in effect conjurors of peoplehood This book invites constitutional international normative and other political and legal theorists of sovereign peoplehood to embrace the conjuring side of their professional identities as a way of exploring the possibility of moving beyond eternally recurring insolvable and increasingly irrelevant questions Instead of asking Who is the people What is the function of constituent power Where may the people exercise its right to self determination Beyond the People asks the reader to consider the prospect of a riskier and more adventurous theoretical road that opens with the question What do I as a theorist imaginer or conjuror of peoplehood assume anticipate and aspire to as I theorize the vehicles that mediate the assumptions anticipations and aspirations of others This question is examined throughout the book as it interrogates the idea of peoplehood beyond disciplinary boundaries showing how polemical visual affective conceptual and allegorical language critically shapes our idea of peoplehood It offers a nuanced account of the contested relationship between the social imaginary of peoplehood on the ground and the imaginative practices of the professional conjurors of peoplehood in the academy Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994

Under the Radiant Sun and the Crescent Moon Angela M. Jeannet, 2000-01-01 Understanding Italo Calvino s love of storytelling is pivotal to understanding the cultural and literary matrix of his lush fictional universe A rich and vibrant critical portrait of Calvino s work
