Enriches and complicates African American and women's history by connecting threads of race gender class and region Darlene Clark Hine John A Hannah Professor of History Michigan State University Winner of the Liz Carpenter Award from the Texas State Historical Association Women of all colors have shaped families communities institutions and societies throughout history but only in recent decades have their contributions been widely recognized described and celebrated This book presents the first comprehensive history of Black Texas women a previously neglected group whose 150 years of continued struggle and some successes against the oppression of racism and sexism deserve to be better known and understood Beginning with slave and free women of color during the Texas colonial period and concluding with contemporary women who serve in the Texas legislature and the United States Congress Ruthe Winegarten organizes her history both chronologically and topically Her narrative sparkles with the life stories of individual women and their contributions to the work force education religion the club movement community building politics civil rights and culture The product of extensive archival and oral research and illustrated with over 200 photographs this groundbreaking work will be equally appealing to general readers and to scholars of women's history black history American studies and Texas history Occasionally a book comes along that is monumental in scope overwhelming in amount of research and so powerful in its impact as to be categorized at once as a lasting contribution to our knowledge of humankind Black Texas Women is one of those rare books The Journal of American History Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 The Changing Image of the Nurse Philip Arthur Kalisch, Beatrice J. Kalisch, 1987 The Kalisches profile the nurse as careerist and suggest approaches for cultivating the development of this new image Illustrated with examples from advertising film and television Triumphant Love J. Hans Kommers, 2020-11-17 This scientific historical biography explores the influences that shaped the spirituality of Amy Carmichael of Dohnavur J Hans Kommers investigates the historical background of Amy's childhood in Millisle and Belfast and provides new and more scholarly information than existing biographies He researched a variety of Keswick related literature in order to provide a fuller picture of Amy's connection with the Keswick Convention and their teaching The descriptions of the life of the millworkers in Belfast the happenings on the worldwide stage and Victorian missionary work and methods round out the picture to give the reader a greater understanding of Amy Carmichael These new facts are most enlightening Dr Jackuelin Woolcock MB BChir MRCP Lond Director Dohnavur Fellowship Corporation Shoreham by Sea UK and Doctor in Dohnavur India 1969 1987 Triumphant Love The Contextual Creative and Strategic Missionary Work of Amy Beatrice Carmichael in South India provides the most extensive biography thus far of Amy Carmichael 1867 1951 a major figure on the missionary landscape of the late 19th and the first half of the 20th century She is seen by some as the Protestant mother Teresa both women worked in India and devoted all of their time and energy to the poor The book is very well researched The author states that the purpose of the extensive research he undertook was to get a closer and clearer picture of Amy Carmichael as the founder off the Dohnavur Fellowship Also he wanted to give a balanced account of her dealings with people and especially her life with God He does this It provides the most comprehensive picture of this remarkable woman It is the definitive source of reference J Hans Kammers s view of the life of Amy Carmichael is that of a fellow evangelical He explains that not only Amy but many missionaries of her time were inspired by the ideal that all people should have the opportunity to hear of Christ s salvation According to him her inspirational work is still relevant today Prof Dr Gijsbert van den Brink URC Professor for Theology and Science Faculty of Theology Free University Amsterdam the Netherlands
