Personcentred Counselling Supervision:

Person-Centred Counselling Supervision Richard Bryant-Jefferies, 2005 Practitioner Bryant Jefferies explains a process of supervision within counseling in which the supervisor demonstrates a person centered way of working and the counselors being supervised bring their experiences of working in the same way Person-Centred Counselling Supervision Richard Bryant-Jefferies, 2017-11-22 Each preceding book in the Living Therapy series provides a demonstration of the application of the person centred approach to counselling and psychotherapy to clients presenting with particular issues To complement these this book focuses more on the supervisory element of the therapeutic process It brings together examples of supervision sessions from the Living Therapy series and presents each one as an example of person centred supervisory practice of person centred counselling The supervision sessions deal with a range of issues that arise when working with clients who are seeking counselling in order to resolve difficulties from a wide range of difficult human experience Each supervision session is introduced with a summary of the background and points for discussion are included at the end of each chapter to stimulate further thought and debate The book does not attempt to demonstrate a definitive way to apply person centred principles to supervision but does demonstrate core principles It will prove valuable to experienced and novice supervisors and to those uncertain about supervising counsellors working in areas outside their own professional experience It should also be read by counsellors in training who are preparing to be supervised for whom the book offers insights into this collaborative process Person-Centred Therapy Today Dave Mearns, Brian Thorne, Elke Lambers, Margaret Warner, 2000-11-13 At the risk of being directive I would say you should buy this book It contains some of the most stimulating and refreshing ideas to have emerged in the person centred literature since On Becoming a Person Person Centred Practice Person Centred Therapy Today makes a timely and significant contribution to the development of one of the most popular and widely used therapeutic approaches This is a book that is rooted in the origins of person centred therapy but stands at the cutting edge of new ideas developing in this tradition It will reinvigorate those of us already immersed in this tradition It should convince newcomers of the vitality and potential of this approach to therapy The Handbook of Person-Centred Psychotherapy and Counselling, 2024-09-05 Written by a diverse range of expert contributors unified by a relational ethics based reading of person centred theory and practice this seminal text is the most in depth and comprehensive guide to person centred therapy Divided into four parts it examines the theoretical philosophical and historical foundations of the person centred approach the fundamental principles of person centred practice as well as new developments in and applications of person centred clinical work explorations of how person centred conceptualisations and practices can be applied to groups of clients who bring particular issues to therapy such as bereavement or trauma and professional issues for person centred therapists such as ethics supervision and training 10 years after it was last published this third edition includes new content on the climate crisis intersectionality and working with racism and anti racism It includes new dedicated chapters on the Non directive Attitude Relational Depth Experiential Practices Working with Trauma Online PCA and Person Centred approaches around the Globe International and interdisciplinary in conception this is a cutting edge resource for students of psychotherapy and counselling on a range of programmes as well as professional practitioners working in the field

Person-Centred Counselling Training Dave Mearns,1997-11-28 This thoughtful and thought provoking book is essential reading not only for those involved in the training of counsellors within the person centred approach but also for individuals who may have simplistic dismissive or otherwise ill informed notions of the depth of self awareness required of the person centred practitioner and the far reaching challenges offered by the approach For counsellors who define themselves as person centred but who have had no substantial training it should be compulsory reading British Journal of Guidance and Counselling Person centred counselling probably requires more training and a greater intensity of training than most other mainstream counselling approaches but

Counselling Supervision in Organisations Sue Copeland,2013-04-03 Counselling supervision is an expanding area as increasing numbers of counsellors enter the profession and require supervision on a regular basis Counselling Supervision in Organisations seeks to provide a model of counselling supervision within organisations enabling supervisors counsellors and their line managers to work effectively within organisational cultures for the benefit of all parties in the working alliance Drawing on her own research Sue Copeland explores both counselling and supervision cultures and their fit with various organisational cultures The dilemmas that often arise from a clash between differing cultural norms are discussed in relation to the supervisory process From securing a supervisory position contracting for the work reporting back to the organisation assessing the work and ending the relationship through to an in depth consideration of the supervisory work embedded in a good working relationship her model provides a blueprint for the supervisory process The model described in Counselling Supervision in Organisations brings together the cultures of counselling and supervision and their relation to organisational cultures It will provide a unique resource for counsellors trainee and professional counselling supervisors and their line managers

Training and Supervision for Counselling in Action Windy Dryden,Brian Thorne,1991-03-26 An excellent compilation Given the explosion in the demand for both counselling and supervision this book should be required reading for all those putting a toe in these complex waters However I think it is also a salutary guide for those already practising as trainers and supervisors I found the issues raised stimulated me to think again about my own practice and to profit from that exercise Counselling The Journal of The British Association for Counselling Psychotherapy This accessible book explores the issues involved in both the training and supervision of counsellors and in the preparation of those who are to undertake supervisory and training roles The number of training courses is growing and counsellors must undergo supervision if they are to be accredited by professional bodies In this volume leading trainers and supervisors from different counselling traditions discuss the responsibilities and the professional and practical issues involved and a trainee and supervisee give an insider s view of what it feels like to be in these positions The closing chapter deals with the important issue of training for counsellor trainers and supervisors The Strength-Based Clinical Supervision Workbook Christopher L. Heffner, Jessica A. Cowan, 2022-08-25 Supervision is the cornerstone of clinical training across all types of mental health providers It facilitates the growth of mental health trainees and maintains the integrity of the field of mental health services by ensuring the competency of clinicians However the process can be complex and potentially confusing for both supervisors and trainees at any stage of their development or post licensure career Utilizing strength based approaches is crucial to the success of supervision This workbook facilitates a collaborative and strength based approach to clinical supervision that both supervisors and trainees can use during the entire course of supervision or for specific goals related to supervision Each chapter of this workbook contains information and activities specific to both the trainee and supervisor to facilitate dialogue about individual and combined strengths areas for growth and goals for collaborative work This is an essential start to finish guide addressing the entire supervision process from preparing for the first session to conducting the last session and everything in between Supervisor Training Penny Henderson, 2018-03-26 Considering how much experience there now is in providing supervisor training in the UK relatively little has been written about it This book creates a lively and readable resource that will be informative and inspirational for those planning for the future of training for supervisors of counsellors or who create teach on or apply for supervisor training The structure and content will invite reflection on the training issues that the authors address It is intended to be consciously forward looking in a period of rapid development and is designed to highlight differences between providers as well as the approaches and ideas they share It is the work of many authors all of whom are or have been involved in supervisor training in the UK The book should also be of interest to colleagues involved in training supervisors in other contexts and allied professions social work medical and nursing professions coaching and teaching It spans a range of theoretical approaches to supervisor training and authors thus inevitably write from quite different basic assumptions about supervision Training and Supervision for Counselling in Action Windy Dryden, Brian Thorne, 1991-03-26 An excellent compilation Given the explosion in the demand for both counselling and supervision this book should be required reading for all those putting a toe in these complex waters However I think it is also a salutary guide for those already practised as trainers and supervisors I found the issues raised stimulated me to think again about my own practice and to profit from that exercise Counselling The Journal of the British Association for Counselling This accessible book explores the issues involved in both the training and supervision of counsellors and in the preparation of those who are to undertake supervisory and training roles The number of training courses is growing Solution-Focused Practice in Outdoor Therapy Will W. Dobud, Stephan Natynczuk, 2022-09-08 Solution Focused Practice in Outdoor Therapy presents a comprehensive model for working therapeutically with clients outdoors with adventure and in any outdoor setting from a typical one hour session to multi day expeditions Chapters lay out a robust and pragmatic model for opening the counseling room door using solution focused methods Dobud and Natynczuk bring together research on best practice in psychotherapy monitoring therapeutic outcomes safe and inclusive leadership supervision and self care to present a robust framework for working therapeutically outdoors Case vignettes are presented throughout the book and a field manual is available for free download with purchase of the book Psychotherapy Supervision Maria Gilbert, Kenneth Evans, 2000-12-16 Maria Gilbert and Ken Evans have given us a beautifully written and richly illustrated account of psychotherapy supervision Providing clear guidelines for effective clinical supervision the book describes and vividly illustrates how the supervisor monitors instructs models consults and supports the supervisee all within the context of respect and empathy Marvin R Goldfried Ph D State University of New York at Stony Brook Stony Brook New York USA Don't read this book if you have a well worked out pre determined model of supervision that you don't want to change it will only disturb distract and challenge you If you would like to review your model of supervision on the other hand update it in the light of modern scholarship and insights open it to manufactured uncertainty so as to adapt it to the contemporary issues of the day then it's a must for you It's a book of tomorrow in the light of the best of yesterday and indisputably for today Michael Carroll Ph D Chartered Counselling Psychologist and BAC Fellow Gilbert and Evans book is sure to become a key text in the area of psychotherapy supervision from an integrative perspective the authors reveal an extensive knowledge of the work of other experts in the field and a deep understanding of how this knowledge may be translated into practice Gilbert and Evans draw much needed attention to the often neglected aspect of the contexts within which supervision takes place Their focus on the multi cultural aspects of supervision and their advocacy for anti oppressive practices is of note very accessible and highly recommended to beginning supervisees and seasoned supervisors alike This book will make a substantial contribution to the field for a long time to come Gillian Straker Professor of Psychology at the University of Sydney What are the primary goals of clinical supervision What is the basis for ethical decision making in supervision How can anti oppressive practice be embedded in the training of supervisors This book presents an integrative relational model for psychotherapy supervision The focus is on the primacy of the relationship both in psychotherapy and in supervision This is one of the few books in the field of supervision to focus exclusively and in depth on issues in clinical supervision It provides an integrative relational model of supervision drawing on developmental theory that is applicable to the fields of psychotherapy counselling and clinical and counselling psychology The authors believe that this integrative framework for supervision will be of use to supervisors of pure form approaches as well as to those supervisors involved in cross orientation supervision since its main focus is on the quality of the supervisory alliance Psychotherapy Supervision contains a balance of theoretical material examples of in vivo supervision and a discussion of techniques The book presents some interesting and innovative material on ethical decision making and on anti oppressive practice in training organisations The authors illustrate their material with frequent examples of supervision from their own practice to show the reader the model in action The book is aimed at supervisors of counsellors psychotherapists and psychologists at all levels Online Supervision Anne Stokes, 2023-04-21 As online therapy becomes more mainstream the importance of using a means of supervision which parallels this is increasingly being recognised by practitioners and the professional bodies Very little has been written about this newly developing way of working so this book is timely Online Supervision A Handbook for Practitioners covers a wide range of issues from the practical aspects of how supervision happens through research legal and ethical issues to specific therapeutic settings and issues Existing models of supervision are considered in the context of the online setting and new models which have been developed specifically for supervising online are explored All chapters are authored by experienced online therapists and supervisors who bring their considerable knowledge from their practice to illuminate this growing area of the profession In many chapters anonymised case examples illustrate the text alongside reflective activities which readers can choose to undertake While the book aims to develop the practice of online supervision of online therapists it is recognised that there are circumstances which mean that some practitioners may choose to engage in online supervision of their face to face work This is recognised and guidelines for offering and engaging in online supervision are discussed Many practitioners begin to offer online supervision without specialised training and the final chapter centres on a discussion about the value and necessity of undertaking preparation for working in a new medium Online Supervision A Handbook for Practitioners will be highly readable and accessible to both experienced practitioners and newcomers to this field Supervising the Counsellor and Psychotherapist Steve

Page, Val Wosket, 2014-07-17 Supervising the Counsellor and Psychotherapist considers how to meet the supervision needs of trainee and experienced counsellors psychotherapists and other helping professionals using an integrative approach that will appeal to practitioners from a broad range of backgrounds and theoretical persuasions The book charts the development of the supervisor as he or she moves through making the transition from therapist to supervising the work of others and includes consideration of the advanced competencies required to supervise experienced practitioners This third edition brings a number of contemporary perspectives to a well known and widely respected core text for the training and development of supervisors The Cyclical Model at the heart of the book has established its relevance in the UK as one of the best known frameworks for teaching and learning the steps and stages of supervision All chapters in this new edition have been extensively revised and updated and key elements include Two brand new chapters on deepening supervision practice and moving beyond supervising counsellors and psychotherapists Updates on recent developments in supervision including research outcomes the use of technology and supervising short term work Creativity play and the use of metaphor and imagery in supervision Developing the use of self through relational supervision Supervising the Counsellor and Psychotherapist is a key text for trainee and experienced supervisors of counsellors and psychotherapists those who train supervisors and supervisees wishing to better understand the supervisory process Person-Centred Therapy Brian Thorne, Elke Lambers, 1998 Contributors from all over Europe cover a wide range of person centred issues and provide an insight into a professional network whose contribution to the field is both substantial and significant Counselling for Eating Disorders in Men Richard Bryant-Jefferies, 2005 Focusing on men whose eating habits have generated side effects on other aspects of their lives such as work health and family this text uses fictitious dialogue in order to illustrate the person centred approach enabling the reader to experience the diverse and challenging issues which surround patients
