Adventures in the Great Forest of Equatorial Africa and the Country of the Dwarfs Paul Belloni Du Chaillu,1890 God in the Rainforest Kathryn T. Long,2019-01-10 In January of 1956 five young evangelical missionaries were speared to death by a band of the Waorani people in the Ecuadorian Amazon Two years later two missionary women the widow of one of the slain men and the sister of another with the help of a Wao woman were able to establish peaceful relations with the same people who had killed their loved ones The highly publicized deaths of the five men and the subsequent efforts to Christianize the Waorani quickly became the defining missionary narrative for American evangelicals during the second half of the twentieth century God in the Rainforest traces the formation of this story and shows how Protestant missionary work among the Waorani came to be one of the missions most celebrated by Evangelicals and most severely criticized by anthropologists and others who accused missionaries of destroying the indigenous culture Kathryn T Long offers a study of the complexities of world Christianity at the ground level for indigenous peoples and for missionaries anthropologists environmentalists and other outsiders For the first time Long brings together these competing actors and agendas to reveal one example of an indigenous people caught in the cross hairs of globalization True Religion Palmer Chinchén,2010-06-01 Give your life away to change this world and God will change you for the best A rising voice in the missional movement Palmer Chinchén challenges Christians to a new kind of spiritual formation one focused on pouring out our life for others and radical dependence upon God When we get out of our comfort zone our souls are awakened everything seems more alive and vibrant So why don t we live our faith that way Why is it that our faith can easily become an old tired routine instead of an exhilarating God honoring lifestyle Discover why true religion involves engaging the problems in our world as we go with the good news of the gospel And in the process of pouring ourselves out for others we ll see God radically transform our own hearts as well Sport Diver ,2002-05 Leveled Books for Readers, Grades 3-6 Gay Su Pinnell,Irene C.
