Raising Our Future Families Schools And Communities Joining Together:

Home, School, and Community Partnerships Larry E. Decker, Virginia A. Decker, 2003 Many Americans worry about what they see as a growing gulf between the American public and its public schools Troubling trends seem to indicate a fraying relationship among families schools and communities Education reform has become the topic of many conversations as well as books and articles There is widespread agreement that schools and education curricula need to be fixed but there is no agreement on how this can be accomplished Educators across the nation are implementing ideas and strategies that are making a difference in children s lives and in the health and well being of our communities Structured in ten chapters this book will help educators weave some of the best ideas for creating and sustaining family and community engagement into a comprehensive home school community partnership program tailored to their own communities Website references and URLs for additional exploration are included For educational leaders teachers and family and community advocates interested in creating and maintaining home school community partnerships and collaborative initiatives

Raising Our Future ,1995 Family support programs have been attracting increased attention and are at the center of efforts to build systems of integrated comprehensive and preventive family focused services This handbook developed by the Harvard Family Research Project HFRP profiles 73 school affiliated family support and education programs in the United States to help principals policy makers program directors evaluators and teachers make decision regarding such programs The handbook serves as a national resource guide describing the scope of programs currently implemented in schools serving families with young children Following an overview that discusses major factors contributing to the success of these programs the program descriptions are divided into the following chapters 1 Preschool and Early Childhood Programs with Parent Involvement 2 Support for Special Needs Children and Their Parents 3 Parent School Partnerships for School Readiness and Enrichment 4 Home Visits for Parenting Support 5 School and Center Based Parenting Support 6 Teens Parenthood and Child Development 7 Family Literacy and Intergenerational Skill Development 8 Family Resource Centers and 9 Family School Community Partnerships Each of the case studies includes demographic information program philosophy features curriculum site information funding and staffing information and evaluation efforts Contains a listing and description of 109 resources for information advocacy and research for family support programs BGC

Early Childhood Interventions, Public-private Partnerships United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform and Oversight. Subcommittee on Human Resources,1999 These hearings transcripts recount testimony before the U S House of Representatives concerning early childhood development programs Testimony addressed the questions of how public and private investments in early childhood programs contribute to successful outcomes for infants and mothers and how these successes can be measured and replicated as states implement welfare reforms and demand for quality child care grows The transcripts include statements and or testimony from Rob Reiner of the I Am Your Child campaign Lincoln C Almond
