Lyon,1993-05 Written in the early 1920s Lights of Bohemia is set in the twilight phase of Madrid s bohemian artistic life against the turbulent social and political background of events between 1900 and 1920 The play s protagonist the poet Max Estrella confronts the dilemma between art and social commitment and the problem of salvaging some sort of authenticity and identity in a context which converts him into an anachronism This is the first play in a series of esperpentos or grotesques in which Valle Inclan tries to convey the tragi grotesque contradictions of his contemporary surroundings by the use of similarly contrasting registers in his theatre Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm,1999-07 The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain s dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975 Beginning with Carmen Laforet s 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain The works examined in this study Nada Primera memoria 1960 by Ana Maria Matute La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix El cuarto de atras 1978 by Carmen Martin Gaité El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society Schumm s analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists development Anthropology Put to Work Les Field,Richard G. Fox,2007-06-15 While some anthropologists have called for a new public or engaged anthropology profound changes have already occurred leading to new kinds of work for many anthropologists The papers in this volume show that anthropology is put to work in diverse ways today 20th Century ,1983 A Tortilla Is Like Life Carole M. Counihan,2010-01-01 An innovative portrait of a small Colorado town based on a decade s worth of food centered life histories from nineteen of its female residents Located in the southern San Luis Valley of Colorado the remote and relatively unknown town of Antonito is home to an overwhelmingly Hispanic population struggling not only to exist in an economically depressed and politically marginalized area but also to preserve their culture and their lifeways Between 1996 and 2006 anthropologist Carole Counihan collected food centered life histories from nineteen Mexicanas Hispanic American women who had long standing roots in the Upper Rio Grande region The interviews in this groundbreaking study focused on southern Colorado Hispanic foodways beliefs and behaviors surrounding food production distribution preparation and consumption In this book Counihan features extensive excerpts from these interviews to give voice to the women of Antonito and highlight their perspectives Three lines of inquiry are framed feminist ethnography Latino cultural citizenship and Chicano environmentalism Counihan documents how Antonito s Mexicanas establish a sense of place and belonging through their knowledge of land and water and use this knowledge to sustain their families and communities Women play an important role by gardening canning and drying vegetables earning money to buy food cooking and feeding family friends and neighbors on ordinary and festive occasions They use food to solder or break relationships and to express contrasting feelings of harmony and generosity or enmity and envy The interviews in this book reveal that these Mexicanas are resourceful providers whose food work contributes to cultural survival An important contribution to Mexican American culture Oral History Review Counihan s book is well written and will appeal to a wide spectrum of readers I would recommend this book to those whose interests lie in foodways gender studies ethnography and folklore A Tortilla is Like Life would be a good addition to any reading list and a beneficial resource for those who desire to understand the complex associations of gender food culture and ethnicity Digest A Journal of Foodways and Culture American Book Publishing Record ,1976 Bibliographic Index ,2007
