Rapan Lifeways Society And History On A Polynesian Island:

Rapan Lifeways F. Allan Hanson,1970 The Evolution of the Polynesian Chieftdoms Patrick Vinton Kirch,1989-07-13 A first study from an archaeological perspective of the elaborate systems of Polynesian chieftdoms presents an original account of the processes of cultural change and evolution over three millennia Polynesia in Early Historic Times Douglas L. Oliver,2002 This book presents a comprehensive and balanced description of major aspects of Polynesian cultures using both the accounts of the European discoverers and the up to date writings of archaeologists and anthropologists BOOKJACKET

The Pacific Islands Douglas L. Oliver,2021-05-25 No detailed description available for The Pacific Islands Pacific Encounters Steven Hooper,2006-06-30 Pacific Encounters brings together for the first time many stunning Polynesian objects collected by voyagers and missionaries during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Illustrated are over 270 items gathered from the major regions of Polynesia Many are from the British Museum which houses fine and rare material from the expeditions of Captain Cook Captain Vancouver and members of the London Missionary Society Ranging from massive images of gods to small fish hooks they are discussed in the contexts of their local use and meanings and their journeys to museums all over the world These pieces have remarkable stories to tell of encounters between humans and their gods between Polynesians and Europeans their respective chiefs and priests beliefs and technologies Pacific Encounters is a groundbreaking book that conveys the wonder and excitement not only of the objects themselves but of the fascinating Polynesian cultures that produced them Social Change In The Pacific Isl Robillard,2020-02-21 First published in 1992 The Pacific Ocean is the largest geographical feature on the face of the earth covering about one third of its entire surface Occupying part of that large expanse are the far flung islands of the Pacific As the papers of this volume clearly indicate the post world war II era and decolonization have brought unprecedented change and the Pacific is now experiencing problems that were formerly associated with other Third World nations Most Pacific countries have rapidly expanding populations and over half of all Pacific Islanders are now in their teenage years or younger Education and modern communications have served to increase aspirations and attracted by hopes of employment and the distractions of urban life islanders are gravitating to urban centers Tahitian Transformation Victoria S. Lockwood,1993 As culturally diverse non Western communities are drawn into the international division of labour capitalism takes root in a number of ways This book describes how capitalism has become a part of the lives of rural Tahitians starting with the arrival of Westerners to the islands and detailing the nature of the transformation brought about by missionaries merchants and French colonisers a transformation whose pace has accelerated with the islands rapid modernisation and incorporation into the French welfare state Warfare and Society Ton Otto,Henrik Thrane,Helle Vandkilde,2006-11-01 This book straddles the disciplines of archaeology and social anthropology Its 25 contributions divided into 6 sections with separate introductions successively scrutinise the concept of war in philosophy social theory and the history of anthropological and archaeological research discuss warfare in pre state and state societies and assess its relationship to rituals social identification and material culture

Slavers in Paradise Henry Evans Maude, 1981 The Wet and the Dry Patrick Vinton Kirch, 1994 Scholars and researchers have long believed that the ability to irrigate is crucial to the development of civilizations In this book archaeologist Patrick Kirch challenges this hydraulic hypothesis and provides a more accurate and detailed account of the role of wet and dry cultivation systems in the development of complex sociopolitical structures Examining research on cultural adaptation and ecology in Western Polynesia and utilizing extensive data from a variety of important South Pacific sites Kirch not only reveals how particular systems of production developed within the constraints imposed by environmental conditions but also explores the tension that arises between contrasting productive systems with differential abilities to produce surplus He shows that the near total neglect of short fallow dryland cultivation as well as arboriculture or tree cropping has seriously distorted the picture that archaeologists and anthropologists have of agricultural intensification and its relation to complex social structure This work likely to become a classic will be central to all future discussions of the ecology and politics of agricultural intensification
