Rape And Representation:

Rape and Representation Lynn A. Higgins, Brenda R. Silver, 1991 Rape does not have to happen The fact that it does and in the United States a rape is reported every six minutes indicates that we live in a rape prone culture where rape or the threat of rape functions as a tool for enforcing sexual difference and hierarchy Rape and Representation explores how cultural forms construct and reenforce social attitudes and behaviors that perpetuate sexual violence The essays proceed from the observation that literature not only reflects but also contributes to what a society believes about itself Fourteen essays by authors in the fields of English American and African American German African Brazilian Classical and French literatures and film present a wide range of texts from different historical periods and cultures Contributors demythologize patriarchal representation in literature and art in order to show how it makes rape seem natural and inevitable Contributors include the editors John J Winkler Patricia Klindiest Joplin Susan Winnett Ellen Rooney Copp lia Kahn Eileen Julien Marta Peixoto Kathryn Gravdal Carla Freccero Nellie V McKay Nancy A Jones and Froma I Zeitlin Their work raises pressing and often difficult questions for feminist criticism

The Representation of Rape and the Rape of Representation Barbara Zecchi, 1998 Spiritual Wounds Síobhra Aiken, 2022-03-01 This book challenges the widespread scholarly and popular belief that the Irish Civil War 1922 1923 was followed by a traumatic silence It achieves this by opening an alternative archive of published testimonies which were largely produced in the 1920s and 1930s testimonies were written by pro and anti treaty men and women in both English and Irish Nearly all have eluded sustained scholarly attention to date However the act of smuggling private painful experience into the public realm especially when it challenged official memory making or even forgetting demanded the cautious deployment of self protective narrative strategies As a result many testimonies from the Irish Civil War emerge in non conventional hybridised and fictionalised forms of life writing This book re introduces a number of these testimonies into public debate It considers contemporary understandings of mental illness and how a number of veterans both men and women self consciously engaged in projects of therapeutic writing as a means to heal the spiritual wounds of civil war It also outlines the prevalence of literary representations of revolutionary sexual violence challenging the assumptions that sexual violence during the Irish revolution was either rare or hidden

Reading Rape Sabine Sielke, 2002 Reading Rape examines how American culture talks about sexual violence and explains why in the latter twentieth century rape achieved such significance as a trope of power relations Through attentive readings of a wide range of literary and cultural representations of sexual assault from antebellum seduction narratives and realist representations of rape in nineteenth century novels to Deliverance American Psycho and contemporary feminist accounts Sabine Sielke traces the evolution of a specifically American rhetoric of rape She considers the kinds of cultural work that this rhetoric has performed and finds that rape has been an insistent figure for a range of social political and economic issues Sielke argues that the representation of rape has been a major force in the cultural construction of sexuality gender race ethnicity class and indeed national identity At the same time her acute analyses of both canonical and lesser known texts explore the complex anxieties that motivate such constructions and their function within the wider cultural imagination Provoked in part by contemporary feminist criticism Reading Rape also challenges feminist positions on sexual violence by interrogating them as part of the history in which rape has been a convenient and conventional albeit troubling trope for other concerns and conflicts This book teaches us what we talk about when we talk about rape And what we re talking about is often something else entirely power money social change difference and identity

Feminists Contest Politics and Philosophy Lisa Nicole Gurley, Claudia Leeb, Anna Aloisia Moser, 2005 The color of the book s cover alludes to the time and context in which this important volume originated the 3rd Interdisciplinary Conference Celebrating International Women s Day at the New School for Social Research in New York City At that time orange alerts were issued by the United States to create a climate of fear and thereby stifle any critical debate of its foreign and domestic policy The feminist thinkers presented in this volume are alert that such a critique is needed They draw on the various languages of their fields to address wide ranging topics and key questions in feminist politics theory and philosophy They all confront the state of urgency concerning the role of women in all classes of society in all fields of research and the academy This unique collection ranges across disciplines as such the four major topics aesthetics and female representation love and psychoanalysis care and ethics the different understandings of women represent current topics of cross disciplinary interest for Women s and Gender Studies Philosophy and Political Science

Conflict Bodies Régine Michelle Jean-Charles, 2014 Explores the relationship between rape and narratives of violence in francophone literature and culture

"A Zoo of Lusts...A Harem of Fondled Hatreds" Deveryle James, 2011-05-25 A Zoo of Lusts A Harem of Fondled Hatred An Historical Interrogation of Sexual Violence against Women in Film explores the pernicious nature of rape in films from the silent era to the 21st century Film is an excellent medium through which to hold this discussion because film like the body as Judith Butler et al suggest is fluid and indeterminate and it is often contemplated as a site for negotiation and resistance This book addresses three major questions 1 why does rape persist as a recurring theme in film 2 how is this subject manifested in film and 3 what does this manifestation say about the act of rape itself its victims its perpetrators and our culture Rape is a sexual manifestation of aggression with the purpose of overpowering humiliating and hurting its victims An examination of media accounts has revealed that before the evolution of feminist film theory and the dismissal of the Production Code the rape victim in films usually fits into one neat set of criteria e g young adult white single middle class heterosexual When the victim s physical makeup deviated from the traditional set of criteria e g a child or a mature person of color married poor homosexual the rape was portrayed more violently The research for this book dwells on the portrayal of the latter type of victims because their sexual violations evoke an absorbing commentary on society s reaction toward those who do not easily fit within the status quo What is it about the makeup of these victims that makes their violations more horrific
