Alexander the Great and Napoleon to modern Egyptologists the world over Yet despite this preeminence in the collective mind Egypt has suffered considerable destruction over the centuries Even before the burning of the Great Library at Alexandria the land of the pharaohs was pillaged by its own people With the arrival of foreign rulers both Arabic and European the destruction and thievery continued along with suppression of ancient knowledge as some rulers sought to cleanse Egypt of its pagan past Exploring the many cycles of destruction and suppression in Egypt as well as moments of salvation such as the first registered excavations by Auguste Mariette Robert Bauval and Ahmed Osman investigate the many conquerors of Egypt through the millennia as well as what has happened to famous artifacts such as the Rosetta Stone They show how Napoleon through his invasion wanted to revive ancient Egyptian wisdom and art because of its many connections to Freemasonry They reveal how the degradation of monuments theft of relics and censorship of ancient teachings continue to this day Exposing recent cover ups during the tenure of Antiquities Minister Zahi Hawass they explain how new discoveries at Giza were closed to further research Clearing cultural and historical distortions the authors reveal the long hidden and persecuted voice of ancient Egypt and call for the return of Egypt to its rightful place as the Mother of Nations and the Mirror of Heaven

The Mahdi and Africa John D Grainger, 2025-11-30 The story of the Mahdi of Sudan is generally related from the British point of view though it was more an African event The Mahdi s uprising was the latest in a series of Islamic rebellions and wars which began in the eighteenth century It also had a profound effect on the rest of North and East Africa destroying the Egyptian Empire provoking Ethiopia into a new unification which allowed it to successfully resist the Mahdists the Egyptians and the Italians it brought British forces forward from the East African coast as far as Uganda for fear that some European power would seize the sources of the Nile and block the river s flow Eventually but only after several humiliating defeats the Mahdist state was overthrown by a British invasion led by Kitchener and participated in by Churchill this also produced a difficult confrontation at Fashoda between the British conquerors and a French expedition sparking a European crisis The author sets the Mahdist war in the wider context of Africa and Islam and in the context of the development of African states but also with a glance forward to the present day where the most important development in Africa is the extensive Islamic uprising which is replicating that of the nineteenth century
