Rape Weapon Of Terror:

Rape Sharon Frederick, 2001 This book is a well researched and moving account of how sexual assault on women has become a potent weapon in virtually all armed conflicts Chapters giving historical and geographic perspectives describe how rape has been used throughout the ages and around the world Case histories reveal the individual tragedies within the broad picture

Female Soldiers in Sierra Leone Megan H. MacKenzie, 2015-11 The eleven year civil war in Sierra Leone from 1991 to 2002 was incomprehensibly brutal it is estimated that half of all female refugees were raped and many thousands were killed While the publicity surrounding sexual violence helped to create a general picture of women and girls as victims of the conflict there has been little effort to understand female soldiers involvement in and experience of the conflict Female Soldiers in Sierra Leone draws on interviews with 75 former female soldiers and over 20 local experts providing a rare perspective on both the civil war and post conflict development efforts in the country Megan MacKenzie argues that post conflict reconstruction is a highly gendered process demonstrating that a clear recognition and understanding of the roles and experiences of female soldiers are central to both understanding the conflict and to crafting effective policy for the future

The Abuse of Power James Newton Poling, 1991-12-01 Pastoral care instruction and observation from a therapist of survivors of sexual abuse The Abuse of Power is must reading for clergy and denominational officials Weaving case stories with theory Poling demonstrates that sexual abuse of children is not a private matter but very much a matter for society and church a question of structure and ideology not just of individual character He is not afraid to tackle the tough question Does the image of God sacrificing Jesus on the cross contribute to abusive parent child relationships If pastors and church officials read this book the church will change Karen Lebacqz Pacific School of Religion For the exploitation of women and children to stop men must be willing to break ranks with all forms of privilege that sanction male dominance James Poling does so by deconstructing his own sense of male entitlement by refusing to distance himself from perpetrators by allowing survivors of sexual and domestic violence to speak with their own voices by giving us profound words of hope and by articulating a powerfully healing theology wrought through the depths of his own struggle with one of the worst evils in our society His courageous and compassionate work reveals the love and hope that is born of solidarity across the boundaries of gender sexual orientation race and economics The psychological political spiritual and theological power of this book is such that all educators ministers therapists and Christians must read it Rita Nakashima Brock Hamline University Chapter titles are 1 Hearing the Silenced Voices 2 Power and Abuse of Power 3 Karen Survivor of Sexual Violence 4 Stories of Recovering Perpetrators 5 The Schreber Case Methods of Analysis 6 The Search for Self 7 The Search for Community 8 The Search for God 9 Ministry Practice and Practical Theology
