Rat Palms A Novel:

Ripostes Philip Marchand, 1998 Ripostes is a collection of essays on some salient features of the Canadian literary landscape a number of which were first published in the Toronto Star many of which appear in these pages for the first time Included are essays on Atwood Findley Ondaatje and Margaret Laurence as well as thematic explorations of Canadian literature such as an account of the demise of the Survival school of Canadian writing a look at the recent history of the Writers Union of Canada an examination of the role of fathers in Canadian fiction a study of the strange attraction of many of our writers to the occult and so on The tone is considered and critical rather than celebratory although the essays are respectful of the genuine achievements of Canadian literature in the past few decades They try to clear the air as it were of boosterism political correctness and other attitudes which hinder the appreciation and reception of good writing This is an honest re appraisal of Canadian literature undertaken at a time when we need no longer be overcome with relief and euphoria over the fact that some of our authors are now world famous or at least world famous in Hoboken New Jersey

West Palm: Complete Novel Joss Cordero, 2013-12-16 Now the entire four part West Palm series is available in one ebook This fast paced psychological thriller captures the quirkiness of South Florida where trash meets class In West Palm Beach on Christmas Eve a local funeral home director catches a night guard performing a bizarre personal ritual with the corpses But even after a narrow escape the psychopathic guard will stop at nothing to find new victims for his compulsive calling Soon a retired police detective turned private eye named Smoker teams up with a near victim the beautiful but tough ex coast guard female ship captain and together they try to stop the killer in his tracks With taut pacing and humor and in the vein of Elmore Leonard and Carl Hiaasen author Joss Cordero creates a relentlessly addictive story that will leave you breathless
