Etuk, 2010-04-21 There is no available information at this time From David Walker to Barack Obama Emma S. Etuk PhD, 2011-05-24 In FROM DAVID WALKER TO BARACK OBAMA Dr Emma S Etuk contends that well known Ethiopianists have offered the inspiration for black freedom and must not be forgotten Ethiopianists and Ethiopianism have little or nothing to do with the government or the country known today as Ethiopia in East Africa Ethiopianists shared the common belief hope and faith in Africa as the land of their ancestors to which by the grace of God they would return as free people They based their hope and faith in Africa upon a biblical text found in Psalm 68 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God Ethiopianism was the ideology and Ethiopianists were the apostles of the ideology In this study Etuk offers studies of well known Ethiopianists W E B Du Bois Marcus Garvey Edward Blyden Henry Garnet Alexander Crummell Bishop Henry Turner Martin R Delany David Walker and Frances E W Harper the famed African American poet Etuk a professional historian resurrects these names with a new perspective and argues that these men and women were the keepers of the African Dream He provides an exhaustive record of their speeches writings and actions to provide a solid foundation for his thesis that Ethiopianists are the keepers of the African Dream Listen Africans! a Revolution Is Coming Emma Samuel Etuk, 2011-01-20 Etuk has been indefatigable in his profound determination for African revolution as admonished not only in this piece but also in his other works Adams O Adah Founder of Impart Africa author of Service As Africa begins her journey into the twenty first century the citizens ask how can we survive In Listen Africans A Revolution is Coming author Emma Samuel Etuk addresses the question of revolutiona fundamental change to the basic fabric of societyand its historical manifestations Through thorough research Etuk presents strong arguments about the need for change in the social political economic and religious life of Africans He contends that an array of issues has brought the continent to this point including broken promises by administrators and governments poverty and widespread hunger angry youth and unemployment official corruption insensitivity and kleptocracy tyranny despotism and dictatorships state sponsored terrorism infrastructural decay and environmental pollution As Etuk uses these examples and makes a call for a revolution he provides a backdrop by discussing the following Origin of revolutions Necessity for an African revolution Theological basis for a revolution Five kinds of revolutions Lessons learned from the six major revolutions of the past Preparation for a revolution Etuk maintains that change is necessary in life and that it is up to the Africans to decide what kind of revolution they should adopt in order to affect change on their continent Never Again Emma Etuk,2008-05 In this book you will learn how Africa is greatly endowed and blessed her contributions to world civilization experiences with colonialism and neo colonialism her need to excel produce or perish the lessons from history and Never Again Recipe for Success Emma S. Etuk,2004-06-30 A useful and practical book for hardworking men and women who don t care about joining the rat race Etuk offers a new definition of success as the accumulation of good deeds doing one good thing one at a time He argues that for a long time in the past success had been defined solely as the accumulation of material things real estate cars clothing lots of money you name it
